

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

UNIVERSALIST REGISTER, 1890.

What was said last year may well be repeated on this page:—

This Year-Book is valuable only as it is made a reliable Register of facts in regard to our Conventions, Associations, Parishes, Churches, Sunday-schools, Academies and Colleges, and other institutions and organizations auxiliary to, or in a general way connected with, the Universalist Church; and also gives accurate information concerning the residence of each and every preacher. To reach these results the Publishing House and the editor have spared no efforts that were likely to issue in success; and, thanks to the interest which many have manifested, a degree of accuracy has been reached; but it must be confessed that the fulness and perfection which ought to characterize such a Register is greatly impaired by the neglect of many preachers to fill out and return the blanks which have been sent.

The reader will notice that, in the present issue of the REGISTER, the names of parishes from which no reports were received are a large number, readily seen, as they are printed in italics. We thus place the responsibility for incompleteness and what may be charged as inaccuracy where it belongs; and we trust we may venture the hope that this showing will not be as large in the years to come.

As in former years, several of the Secretaries of State Conventions have rendered substantial aid. Their efforts are highly appreciated and gratefully acknowledged. In the special particular of furnishing complete lists of clergymen in fellowship in the respective Conventions, this aid has been valuable; and in not a few instances these reports of Secretaries also furnish—owing to the neglect of preachers as just mentioned—the latest information available to the editor in regard to the statistics of Parishes, Churches, Sunday-schools and Property. But, while such information is gratefully received, and, in the absence of reports direct from pastors, is gladly used, it is not, for the purposes of this Register, wholly satisfactory, for the reason that in many instances it is a copy of figures and statements returned to the Secretary of the General Convention for the year ending the previous December; in other instances it is based on reports collected in advance of the sessions of the respective Conventions, and therefore represents the condition of the parishes and their organizations at a time quite remote from the issue of the Register, — in not a few instances, several months before its publication.

If all interested will be so minded, the Register can represent our condition accurately up to October preceding the year of its date. Let it be borne in mind that the portion of the Register giving the statistics of Conventions and Parishes is put in the hands of the printer on the tenth day of October. The Alphabetical List of Preachers will be open to corrections until the first day of November.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

"The Universalist General Convention," having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session — 1891 — will be held at such place as may be selected by the Board of Trustees, on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, Rev. I. M. Atwood, D.D. The convention is composed of the Presidents (or, in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention, as reported to the annual session, October, 1889, aggregate $212,717.45, and are distributed as follows: —

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $125,549.53. The income of this fund is used

“ in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause.”

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $32,012.13, and the income is appropriated to loans to new students.

III. Church Extension Fund. Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $7,714.69.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $8,000, “ to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination,” except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $11,485.83.

V. Ada Tibbets Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbets of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., moderately valued at $60 per acre, subject to a lien of $4,100, on condition that he is to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income shall be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He has since conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill., valued at $3,600, subject to a lien of $2,000. The property is under contracts of sale, and its value over and above the liens is $9,155.27.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $13,500.

VIII. Wm. H. Ryder Fund. $12,500.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1888-89 was $18,157.98. The appropriations for the Convention year 1889-90 are $19,500, with whatever surplus of income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed “ to provide for a Universalist Church Conference or Conferences, to be held at some central location or locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative, or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education." Such a Conference is to be held in 1890, probably at the season of the Convention in other years, and a Committee of the Board, consisting of Messrs. Joy, Capen and Demarest, are to consider and report, in January, plans, place and rules for the action of the Board.

The officers of the Convention are:—

President—Hon. Hosea W. Parker, Claremont, N. H.

Vice-President—Rev. J. S. Cantwell, D.D., Chicago, Ill.

THE WOMAN'S CENTENARY ASSOCIATION.—In 1869 the women of the Universalist Church formed an Aid Association to assist in raising the Murray Fund. When this work was accomplished they enlarged the sphere of their operations and became an incorporated body under the name here given.

Dating from 1875 the Association has, during a large portion of the time, supported a missionary in Scotland. Revs. Marion Crosley, J. W. Hanson, D.D., and Caroline A. Soule—the latter still in the field—have been so employed. It also shares with the General Convention in sustaining a missionary in Texas. It has published and distributed editions of sixty-eight valuable tracts, aggregating 5,000,000 pages.

The Association meets at the time and place of the session of the General Convention, and special meetings are held during the year in connection with the sessions of the State Conventions where its work is organized. It is supported by annual, life and patron memberships, and by voluntary contributions. Annual memberships, $1; life memberships, $25; patron, $100. It reported to the General Convention in October, 1889, total receipts for the year, $3,040.80; disbursements, $2,826.38; permanent fund, $6,033.32.

Officers for 1889-90: President—Mrs. M. Louise Thomas, New York; Recording Secretary—Mrs. E. D. Brown, Honeoye Falls, N. Y.; Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. E. L. Sherwood, Anacostia, D. THE UNIVERSALIST HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—This Society was organized in 1834 for the collection of facts, books and papers pertaining to the history and condition of Universalism. The Society is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts. It has a library of about three thousand volumes, besides important manuscripts and papers. This library has been of great help in tracing the history and fortunes of our distinguishing faith in other countries and times. Donations of books and money are earnestly solicited, that the library may be rendered as complete as possible and its usefulness augmented. President—Rev. Its endowment, including cost of building, now amounts to $145,000. The expenditure for the year 1888-89 was $12,713.37. The Home has fifty-six inmates. President—Mrs. C. H. THE BREVOORT MISSION, New York, was organized—the School in 1858, the Society in 1869—“for the purpose of establishing and continuing a free Christian Church in the city of New York, for the worship of One Infinite God as the Creator and Ruler of the universe; in which shall be preached and taught the Gospel of Jesus Christ, revealing the Universal Fatherhood of God, the immortality of the human soul, the inevitable punishment of sin, and the sure reward of obedience, as present and ever-living principles; and a sublime faith in the future eternal holiness and happiness of all.” It has a fund which was founded by the Mission School, and increased by subscriptions and the proceeds of a fair held by the Universalist Churches of the city about 1868. This fund was invested in the purchase of “Brevooort Hall,” the old home of the Mission School, from rentals of which all expenses are fully met, including those of the Sunday-school.

STATISTICS.

IN THE FOLLOWING CLASSIFICATION BY STATES AND TERRITORIES A TABULAR EXHIBIT OF UNIVERSALIST PARISHES, CHURCHES AND SUNDAY-SCHOOLS IS SHOWN. INFORMATION RESPECTING STATE CONVENTIONS IS ALSO GIVEN.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedications is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention Secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

Parishes that have not reported for this issue of the Register have their names printed in italics.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

For the purpose of interesting the young people of the Universalist Church in the realization and discharge of their obligations, the General Convention has drafted the plan of a Young People's Missionary Association. All the young people of a Universalist parish of the age of twelve years and upwards are eligible to membership. The object of the Association is declared to be the religious and intellectual improvement of its members, the promotion of the interests of the Universalist Church, and the rendering of other Christian service. The Associations are auxiliary to the General and State Conventions; and their membership fees and receipts from missionary boxes are to be equally divided between the General Convention and the respective State Conventions. Other receipts may be applied to such specific purpose, missionary or benevolent, as the Associations may direct. Copies of the recommended Constitution may be obtained from Rev. G. L. Demarest, D.D., Secretary, Manchester, N. H. Associations already formed, and more or less active, are located as follows:—

The full course of study requires three years; College graduates can complete it in two. There is also a course arranged for four years, on the completion of which students will receive the degree of B.D. Students can enter for a shorter term, and will be entitled to a certificate stating their attainments.

This is our oldest theological school, having been founded in 1856. #### THE DIVINITY SCHOOL OF TUFTS COLLEGE.

Faculty.—Rev. E. H. Capen, D.D., President; Rev. T. J. Sawyer, D.D., Packard Professor of Christian Theology; Rev. C. H. Leonard, D.D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology; W. G. Tousey, A.M., D.B., Professor of Psychology and Natural Theology; Rev. G. T. Knight, A.M., D.B., Professor of Church History; Rev. G. M. Harmon, A.M., D.B., Assistant Professor of Theology; Moses T. Brown, A.M., Professor of Oratory; Rev. W. R. Shipman, D.D., Rev. E. L. Houghton, Rev. Henry I. Cushman, D.D., Rev. W. S. Woodbridge, Lecturers.

Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate Theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the Collège to an intellectual centre like Boston affords,—libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D.B. is conferred upon A.B.'s who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments, To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

LOMBARD THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

Faculty. — Rev. N. White, Ph.D., Professor of Biblical Languages and Exegesis; John V. N. Standish, Ph.D., Professor of Moral Philosophy and Natural Theology; Isaac A. Parker, A.M., Professor of Greek; Rev. J. Clarence Lee, A.M., Professor of Homiletics and of Biblical Interpretation.

Persons well recommended, who have resolved to devote themselves to the ministry, are admitted on examination, and may pursue a course of study embracing one, two, three or four years, according to their ability or need.

Students completing one of the partial courses will receive a certificate of actual attainments in the studies pursued. Those completing the full course will receive the degree of B.D.

All departments of the University are open to students of theology, without charge. The only expense is for board and books, which may be so reduced by beneficiary funds as to place the advantages of the theological school within the reach of all who desire them.

The calendar of the theological school corresponds with that of other departments of the University.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the new Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailing supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected seven years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76x40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. It has proved valuable in many ways. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily calisthenics, under the supervision of Miss Cora M. Wheeler. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages equal to the best to be found elsewhere, and at the same time make the expense to students as low as will permit the accomplishment of this object. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German, French and Italian. Piano Music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodet, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. Vocal Music is taught by Miss Lillian Reynolds, recently the soprano in the choir of Immanuel Church, Boston, and for years a pupil of Geo. L. Osgood. The Music Class of 1887-88 numbered 126. The course in Elocution, as conducted by Miss C. M. Wheeler, is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this study. It is doubtful whether any other seminary in the State affords one equally good. The work in the Art Department is decidedly superior. The Business Course is greatly superior to any offered by exclusively commercial schools. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the Academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years; elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue.

Expenses, for board, tuition, church sitting, furnished room and washing, from $210 to $220 per year. Reduced rates to children of clergymen.

The School is located in one of the most delightful and healthful portions of the Mohawk Valley, about midway between Albany and Utica, on the New York Central and West Shore railroads. Twelve passenger trains from the West and twelve from the East stop at Fort Plain daily.

Students under thirteen years of age are not admitted.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES. — President, Amasa H. Martin, North Bloomfield; Secretary, Rev. Daniel Ballou, Utica; Charles Benedict, Little Falls; Henry C. Lyman, M.D., Sherburne; Edwin H. Townsend, Auburn; John Finehout, Canajoharie; Edwin W. Wood, Fort Plain; Reuben Elwood, Fort Plain; Lester M. Weller, Fort Plain; Rev. Asa Saxe, D.D., Rochester; W. I. Scott, Bridgewater.

Faculty — Charles V. Parsell, A.M., President; Anna C. Marston, Lady Principal. Sixteen competent instructors are employed in the various departments appertaining to a first-class academic institution.

Catalogues, with full information, can be had on application to the President, Fort Plain, N. Y.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The Seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of study are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending College, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

UNIVERSALIST REGISTER.

The department of instrumental music is conducted by Miss L. M. Kendall, whose method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is taught by Mrs. Etta Besse Miller, a contralto soloist of reputation, and a teacher of experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of sixteen hundred volumes.

Fund. — The permanent fund amounts to about $23,000, and will be materially increased by the bequest of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre.

Expenses. — Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $9 per term. Nine free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements.

NECROLOGY.

The deaths of the following-named preachers, or former preachers in the Universalist Church, twenty-one in all, have occurred since the Register for 1889 went to press, except the first, of which we have but recent information. Limited space at our command necessitates only a brief notice of each.

“DANIEL BREWER of Gordon, Ga., died July 26, 1887, aged seventy-six. A primitive Baptist in early life, he became a Universalist at the age of forty, and was ordained in 1869. ‘A man of pure life, of great charity and of untiring zeal for the spread of the knowledge of the truth.’”

ALONZO BACON COPELAND, born in Potsdam, N. Y., June 28, 1810, died at Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 11, 1888. His general education was obtained at St. Lawrence Academy, Potsdam, N. Y., and he made what preparation for the ministry was possible at Clinton Liberal Institute, Clinton, N. Y. He was ordained in 1842, and spent most of his ministry in the neighborhood of Rochester, N. Y. In 1847, on account of a throat difficulty, he ceased to preach regularly. For many years prior to his decease he was an almost helpless invalid. Through all his varied experiences he was a true Christian.

JAMES T. POWERS died at Lexington, Mass., Dec. 17, 1888, aged sixty-three years. Early identified with Universalism, and for several years superintendent of our Sunday-school in Brooklyn, N. Y., he entered the ministry in 1854, and was ordained in 1855. His settlement was in Southbridge, Mass., and subsequently in the Unitarian parish at Carlisle, Mass. He won the reputation of “exceptional talent as a writer,” and, though not always successful, had many friends, and lived a Christian life.

JASIEL PERRY FULLER was born in Stoughton, Mass., April 7, 1803, and died at Galesburg, Ill., Dec. 19, 1888. He began his public religious career as a Methodist exhorter, although never formally connected with the Methodist Church. In June, 1824, he was fellowshipped as a Universalist preacher by the Southern Association, having studied for the ministry with his elder brother, the late Rev. Zelotes Fuller. He was ordained at a session of the same association at South Wilbraham, Mass., June 2, 1825. His pastoral settlements were at Stafford, Conn., Dana, Mass., Beardstown, Camden, Peoria, Farmington, Tivoli and Henderson, Ill. For four years he was at Troy, Mo. Returning to Illinois, he was at Cherry Grove and Henderson Grove for four years, when, afflicted with total blindness, his work was brought to a stop. Subsequently his sight was partially restored, and he was able to preach occasionally. A resident of Galesburg for many years, he was respected by all who knew him.

JOSEPH PLUMMER ATKINSON, born in Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 17, 1809, died at the residence of his daughter, in Boston, Mass., Dec. 27, 1888. Educated in his native town, he studied for the ministry with the late Rev. Dr. Thomas Whittemore, and was ordained in 1829. His settlements were at Hingham, Mass., Dover and Weare, N. H., Marblehead, Mass., Westbrook, Me., Orleans and Orange, Mass. His residence for many years was at Laconia, N. H., where he "greatly endeared himself to the whole community." At one time at the head of the business affairs of the Universalist Publishing House, he conducted its affairs with great zeal and integrity. An early and consistent advocate of the temperance reform, he made many sacrifices in its behalf, and rendered it valuable and valiant service. Blessed in his closing hours with unimpaired intellectual power, he bore testimony to the transcendent power of his faith, and was supported and cheered by its abundant comforts.

"MILES L. LANGLEY of Curtis, Ark., died Dec. 30, 1888, aged sixty-two. Ordained a minister of the Baptist denomination in 1850, he continued in that work, with the marked approval of his associates, until 1884, when changes of conviction led to his withdrawal from his former fellowship. Last year he sought and received from the General Convention a license as an ordained clergyman. His neighbors bear full testimony to his Christian character. During his entire life he was a resident of Arkansas, and in the years of internecine strife he was a faithful adherent of the Union. He was a member of the convention in 1864 that established a provisional government loyal to the Union; was a representative of his county in the convention of 1868 for framing a new State constitution, and was in the same year chaplain of the house of representatives."

JAMES PARTELOW WESTON, D.D., born in Bremen, Germany, in July, 1815, died at Deering, Me., Dec. 31, 1888. He graduated from Bowdoin College in 1840, and was ordained at the session of the Maine Convention of Universalists, held in Augusta, in 1842. His only settlement as a pastor was at Gorham, Me., from 1843 to 1850. The remainder of his life was devoted to teaching. Principal of the Liberal Institute in Waterville, Me., from 1850 to 1853, he took charge of Westbrook Seminary at Deering, Me., in the last-named year, and became President of Lombard University, Galesburg, Ill., in 1859. Retiring from that position in 1872, he became Principal of Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass., which position he filled till 1877. In 1878 he returned to Deering as President of Westbrook Seminary, where he remained during the rest of his life. His degree of D.D. was conferred by Tufts College in 1864. "He was a man of marked ability, of affectionate disposition, and great strength of character. He gained not only the respect but also the love of his pupils and teachers, and his success in building up the institutions with which he was connected bears testimony to the fact."

"MRS. ESTELLA BACKUS, wife of Rev. W. M. Backus, and a licentiate of the Ohio Universalist Convention, died in Blanchester, Ohio, Jan. 9, 1889. . . . By the purity of her life and the sweetness of her spirit, she won the love and esteem not only of our own church but the entire community. She died as she had lived, firm in her faith in the gospel of God's undying, unchanging love."

HOLDEN RYAN NYE, D.D., born in Canada, September, 1819, died at Norwood, Mass., Jan. 17, 1889. He was ordained at Methuen, Mass., Sept. 4, 1842. His pastorates were at Methuen, Mass., Bangor, Me., New York, Brooklyn, N. Y., Columbus, Ohio, Springfield, Ill., Springfield, Mass., Philadelphia, Towanda, Pa., and Norwood, Mass. From September, 1858, to January, 1863, he was associated with Rev. Dr. G. L. Demarest, in editing and publishing the "Star in the West," at Cincinnati, Ohio. His life was one of great activity, his preaching earnest, eloquent and effective. In the field of debate he took high rank as a defender of the faith; and, although his life was "beset with many cares and anxieties, he always illustrated the patience and hopefulness of the Christian."

DANIEL MORTIMER REED of Rockford, Ill., died Jan. 23, 1889, aged sixty-six. Ordained at Oxford, N. H., Aug. 27, 1845, "he served several parishes in New England, and removing West, found fields of labor in Peoria, Ill., Dubuque, Iowa, and Rockford, Ill., which last city had been his home for twenty-two years. His strong mental endowments and popular gifts rendered him an eloquent exponent of our faith. He was always a faithful pastor, and was successful and popular in all his churches. He was a man of great kindness of heart and of amiable character, and as the Rockford 'Register' aptly styles him, 'a preacher of sweetness and light.'"

"ELIAS LYMAN BRIGGS of Wilton Junction, Iowa, died Feb. 8, 1889, aged sixty-seven. Mr. Briggs had for many years been a member and minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church; but at last, after much mental struggle, became 'convinced that the Bible did not teach the doctrine of endless punishment.' In 1878 he was disowned by the Conference to which he belonged, on doctrinal grounds alone, and for ten years he had faithfully labored in our fellowship for the progress of the Divine Kingdom. In him, 'strength of intellect, sweetness of character and spirituality were all combined.'"

"GEORGE H. HASTINGS of Whitewater, Wis., died Feb. 14, 1889, aged thirty-four. He had come to our ministry from that of another church, but had not completed the year of probationary license. 'He was faithful to our cause in Whitewater, and though a sick man from the beginning of his pastorate, he did excellent service to our church, and was deeply mourned.'"

BENJAMIN HUNT, born Jan. 6, 1817, died at his home in South Alabama, N. Y., May 27, 1889. Fellowshipped by the Niagara Association in June, 1841, he was ordained at Cowlesville, N. Y., May 14, 1845. Most of his work was done in the State of New York in pastorates at Aurora, Cowlesville, Freedom, Yorkshire, Wales and Alexander. He spent seven years, however, in Michigan. "Studious and a hard worker, his sermons gave evidence of close application and thorough preparation, and were a power for good. He held several discussions with religious opponents, and did yeoman's service for the cause of Universalism. He commanded the respect, confidence and good-will of all who knew him. He rests from his labors, and his works not only follow him, but remain as a lasting monument to his memory."

WILLIAM QUEAL, born in Utica, N. Y., Oct. 9, 1812, died suddenly at his home in Springfield, Mich., June 3, 1889. A student for the ministry with the late Rev. Stephen R. Smith, he served, after his ordination, at Mottville and other points in western New York a few years, when, in 1836, he made a trip to Illinois, and preached the first Universalist sermon delivered in Chicago. Returning to New York, he had an eleven years' pastorate in Bristol, Ontario County; and then, being severely afflicted with bronchial trouble, he sought a residence in Michigan, and gave up preaching. For several years he has been a magistrate. The Tecumseh "Herald" said of him: "He was plain-spoken and independent in all his views, and was a magistrate possessed of learning and integrity. A kind father, an indulgent husband, a friend of education, an honored citizen."

SAMUEL BINNS was born in Bury, England, Aug. 22, 1816, and died at Fayette, Fulton County, Ohio, June 17, 1889. Formerly a Methodist, he became a Universalist in 1849, and was ordained in 1852. "He became at once an active and tireless missionary of Universalism. He was a man of sturdy physique, and untiring industry and energy. Opponents of Universalism were promptly challenged to discussion, and, if they accepted the challenge, they found in Brother Binns a strong and ready debater. For some twenty-five years he was in active ministerial labor, and his work was fruitful of good." Failing health compelled the relinquishing of his public labors, and made him long for the time of his departure. Conscious when the end came, he was glad to be released.

"HARVEY EUGENE ROBINSON died at Williamstown, Vt., June 17, 1889, aged —. Mr. Robinson had just completed the course of study in Tufts Divinity School, and, having been a licentiate of the Massachusetts Convention for a year, his ordination had been authorized. At the time appointed for this solemn service, however, he was suffering from the illness which speedily terminated in death. Mr. Robinson 'was a faithful and earnest student, and especially devoted to the practical problems of the Church. . . . He soon found his place among the Christian workers in the West Somerville Universalist Church, sharing in all the fortunes of the society, rejoicing in all of its good work and progress, leading in the endeavor of the young people after Christian life, and giving himself with missionary zeal and purpose to the promotion of the cause he loved.'"

ELIHU MOORE, born in Gallia County, Ohio, April 6, 1813, died at his home near Troy, Ohio, July 8, 1889. He began to preach as a Baptist in 1833, and in 1844 became a public advocate of Universalism. His son says of him, "I suppose father organized more churches during his ministry than any other Universalist minister in the State of Ohio." His sickness was protracted, lasting about five years, during the latter portion of which he longed ardently for release. He was a true Christian minister.

RUFUS ORLAND WILLIAMS, D.D., born in Peru, Berkshire County, Mass., May 13, 1805, died at Upper Lisle, N. Y., Aug. 29, 1889. He fitted for the ministry under the direction of Rev. Messrs. W. S. Balch and Warren Skinner; was fellowshipped by the Green Mountain Association at its session at Barnard, Vt., in June, 1830, and was ordained at the session of the New York State Convention at Clinton, May 12, 1831. For several years he made his home at Albany, N. Y., preaching at Amsterdam and other places in that vicinity. Subsequently he settled in Hartford, Conn., then at Barkhamsted, in the same State. Afterwards he had pastorates in Dover, N. H., Norwich, Conn., Southbridge, Mass., Exeter, N. H., and Upper Lisle, N. Y. While a resident of Massachusetts he attended medical lectures in Worcester, and received the degree of M.D. After removing to Upper Lisle, in 1861, he practised medicine for twenty years. While in Hartford he was associated with the late Rev. Dr. Williamson in editing and publishing the "Religious Inquirer and Gospel Anchor." Subsequently, when the paper became the "Universalist Union," and was moved to New York, Mr. Williams continued his connection with it, having as his associates Rev. Messrs. A. C. Thomas, T. J. Sawyer, I. D. Williamson and Mr. Philo Price. Dr. Williams was a scholar, and many of his best productions enriched the pages of the "Universalist Quarterly." He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith.

ELLERY ELMER PECK, born in Oppenheim, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1849, died in Bangor, Me., Sept. 10, 1889. A graduate of the Divinity School of Tufts College in 1875, he was ordained at St. Johnsville, N. Y., Feb. 10, 1876. His pastorates were at Cooperstown, Victor, N. Y., and Bangor, Me. In noticing Mr. Peck's death, the "Gospel Banner" said of him: "He was successful from the beginning of his ministerial labors, the rich fruits of his several pastorates fulfilling the promise of his college years and his class-room successes. As a student he was thorough, although his mind was quick in intellectual processes, while as a speaker he excelled. In his public ministrations he spoke his carefully prepared discourses with a force and an unction which insured large and ever-increasing audiences, and carried the truths enunciated home to the minds and hearts of the attentive hearers. There was a magnetism in the person and voice of the sincere and energetic preacher which caused the sentiments uttered to be deeply impressed upon the minds of the listeners. At the same time, their moral and spiritual natures were moved to respond to the stirring tones and impassioned appeals.

“His ministry in Bangor will be long remembered by those who labored with him. His success there has been marked. Every department of church work has felt the influence of his thoughtfulness and his unyielding energy. The church edifice has been improved and beautified; the church organization strengthened; the Sunday-school enlarged in membership; the congregation greatly increased, and the spirituality of the people doubtless correspondingly deepened. The young people have been cared for, the social interests kept in a healthy state, and the parish has prospered financially. His influence for good in the community was felt in many ways. He was ever ready to do what he could to promote temperance and other worthy reforms. Reverent, manly, courteous and genial, he made and held friends wherever he lived, and by these noble qualities he not only secured for himself the esteem of all who knew him, but he won for his church and cause the respect of those in other sects.”

SETH CHANDLER, born in New Ipswich, N. H., Dec. 2, 1806, died at Shirley, Mass., Oct. 4, 1889. Although not in ecclesiastical relations with the Universalist Church for many years, Mr. Chandler began his ministry in our ranks, and in his later years was heartily in sympathy with it, and in full fellowship with its faith and methods. He received the fellowship of the Providence Association of Universalists in May, 1831, and was ordained at a Conference of the same Association in October of the same year. His sympathies were with those who in that day were known as Restorationists, and for a while, as pastor of our church at Oxford, Mass., he acted with them. In 1834 he became pastor of the First Congregational (Unitarian) Church in Shirley, a pastorate which he ably filled for forty-five years. He also held important town offices, and wrote and published a valuable history of Shirley. By his will he bequeathes to the Universalist Historical Society about six hundred valuable books, embracing the periodical literature of the Restorationists, and a complete set of the periodicals published by the Unitarians. Let us keep his memory green!

JOHN VIRGIL WILSON, born in Attleborough, Mass., Sept. 10, 1809, died at his home in Waverly, Mass., Oct. 28, 1889. He fitted for the ministry under the guidance of Rev. Messrs. T. G. Farnsworth and F. A. Hodsdon. He was ordained in 1835, and his pastorates were at Jaffery, N. H., Providence, R. I., Norwich, Conn., Clinton, N. Y., Marlborough and Brewster, Mass. He was a physician of skill, having gratifying success in his practice. A preacher distinguished by energy, judiciousness and spiritual fervor, he made a good record and left a blameless name.

UNIVERSALIST REGISTER, 1891.

It is believed that in this issue of the Register we have come nearer to accurate statement of the strength of our church than in any former year. Every effort possible to the publisher and editor has been put forth to obtain information, but the fact that more than three hundred preachers still retain the blanks sent them to fill, explains our want of complete success. The number of parishes whose names are printed in italics is less than it was last year, but there would have been none had the delinquents responded as they might have done. Two or three responses were made a month after the time in which they could be used, as it is necessary in order to an early issue of the Register that the statistics in regard to Parishes, Churches and Sunday-schools should be given to the printer not later than October 10. Corrections in the alphabetical list of Preachers can be made as late as November 1.

The Secretaries of the State Conventions in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Ohio, Vermont, the State Superintendent of Kentucky, and the President of the Association in Texas, have rendered valuable assistance in correcting the statistics in their respective jurisdictions; and others have given promise of aid another year. Great service has also been afforded by several of the Secretaries of the State organizations of The Young People's Christian Union; and invaluable aid has been rendered by the Secretary of the General Convention.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

“The Universalist General Convention,” having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session — 1891 — will be held at such place as may be selected by the Board of Trustees, on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, I. M. Atwood, D.D. The convention is composed of the Presidents (or, in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, “to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies.” In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention, as reported in October, 1890, aggregate $213,508.48, and are distributed as follows: —

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $125,549.53. The income of this fund is used "in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause."

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $33,384.13, and the income is appropriated to loans to new students.

III. Church Extension Fund. Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $7,840.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $8,000, "to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination," except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $11,929.55.

V. Ada Tibbetts Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbetts of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., moderately valued at $60 per acre, subject to a lien of $4,100, on condition that he is to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income shall be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He has since conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill., valued at $3,600, subject to a lien of $2,000. The property is under contracts of sale, and its value over and above the liens is $9,155.27.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $18,500.

VIII. William H. Ryder Fund. $25,000. The income only to be used, "at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for the education of young persons for the ministry of the Universalist Church." But the Board may, in a special emergency, apply a portion of such income "to the credit of any Missionary or Church Extension Fund" under their control and direction.

IX. Draper Fund. The late Mr. Eben D. Draper of Boston, Mass., bequeathed to the General Convention the sum of $2,000, to be expended for missionary purposes in the Western States.

X. The "T" Fund. A lady of New York, who desires that her name shall not at present be published, has paid $2,350 to the Convention, as the beginning of a Fund, the income of which shall be paid to her during her natural life, and thereafter shall be added to the Theological Scholarship Fund.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1889-90 was $18,791.03. The appropriations for the Convention year 1890-91 are $19,500, with whatever surplus of income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed "to provide for a Universalist Church Conference or Conferences, to be held at some central location or locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education." Such a Conference was held Oct. 21-23, 1890, in Rochester, N. Y.

A mission to Japan was established in 1890, the sum of $62,000, one-fifth payable annually, having been subscribed. The missionary, Rev. Dr. George L. Perin, his assistants, Rev. I. Wallace Cate and Miss Margaret C. Schouler, have their headquarters at Tokio.

THE WOMAN'S CENTENARY ASSOCIATION. — In 1869 the women of the Universalist Church formed an Aid Association to assist in raising the Murray Fund. When this work was accomplished they enlarged the sphere of their operations and became an incorporated body under the name here given.

Dating from 1875 the Association has, during a large portion of the time, supported a missionary in Scotland. Revs. Marion Crosley, J. W. Hanson, D.D., and Caroline A. Soule — the latter still in the field — have been so employed. It also shares with the General Convention in sustaining a missionary in Texas. It has published and distributed editions of sixty-eight valuable tracts, aggregating 5,000,000 pages.

The Association meets at the time and place of the session of the General Convention, and special meetings are held during the year in connection with the session of the State Conventions where its work is organized. It is supported by annual, life and patron memberships, and by voluntary contributions. Annual memberships, $1; life memberships, $25; patron, $100. It reported to the General Convention in October, 1890, total receipts for the year, $2,441.29; disbursements, $2,184.05; permanent fund, $10,127.22.

The Society is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts. It has a library of about three thousand volumes, besides important manuscripts and papers. This library has been of great help in tracing the history and fortunes of our distinguishing faith in other countries and times. ## STATISTICS.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedications is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention Secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

Parishes that have not reported for this issue of the Register have their names printed in italics.

SCOTLAND.

The Universalists of Scotland, in 1875, organized a Convention which meets annually on the last Saturday in May. It is a small body, composed of only two churches, — one in Glasgow and the other in Larbert. The church at Larbert owns the building in which it worships, and is known as the Church of the Redeemer; that at Glasgow worships at No. 9 Watson St., and is known as St. Paul's Universalist Church. There are several preaching stations and much unorganized Universalism. The officers of the Scotland Convention are: Honorary Presidents—J. W. Hanson, D.D., and Rev. Mrs. C. A. Soule; Pres.—Andrew Ure; Vice-Pres.—A. Gardiner; Sec.—John Currie, 39 Hope St., Glasgow;—Treas.—William Bogle; Trus.—Messrs. Roughead, Binnie, Smith of Larbert, Hamilton and Sinclair of Glasgow; Missionary—Rev. Caroline A. Soule, 24 Kevlin Drive, Kevlinbridge, Glasgow.

Vice-Pres. Woman's Centenary Association—Miss Ellie Mitchell, 24 Howard St., Glasgow.

St. Paul's Universalist Church worships (at 11 A.M., 2 and 7 P.M.) every Sunday at No. 9 Watson St., Glasgow. Number of families, forty-five; church of one hundred and eighty members, organized in March, 1879; Sunday-school organized in June, 1879, forty-two members; property, $500.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ORGANIZATIONS.

In founding the YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHRISTIAN UNION of the Universalist Church in 1889 (mentioned on the pages preceding the State Statistics), an attempt has been made to obtain uniformity of aim and effort in the many-named Young People's Organizations in our communion. To what extent this attempt has succeeded it is not possible at present to show, as very few State organizations are yet in successful working order, and we fail to get a general response to our solicitations for detailed statements. The secretaries of the State organizations in Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Illinois and Wisconsin, have kindly given all information in their possession ; but even in these sections it is impossible to ascertain, from anything reported, where to draw the line between societies connected with the Union and those that are independent of the Union. Nothing has seemed to remain, therefore, but to give the names of all the young people's organizations newly reported, and also those reported last year, except where information of their having changed their name, or of ceasing to work, has been received.

Faculty. — E. H. Capen, D.D., President; T. J. Sawyer, D.D., Packard Professor of Christian Theology; C. H. Leonard, D.D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology; W. G. Woodbridge, Lecturers.

Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the college to an intellectual centre like Boston affords, — libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D.B. is conferred upon A.B.'s who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments. To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the new Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailing supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected seven years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76x40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. It has proved valuable in many ways. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily calisthenics, under the supervision of Miss Blanche Sargent. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages of the highest order at the least cost to students. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German, French and Italian. Piano Music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodell, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. His sister, Miss Hanna Bodell, whose training has been conducted by eminent European masters, came to this country to accept the position of piano assistant and teacher of pipe organ, and entered upon her duties September, 1890. Miss Nellie Hill Otis is at the head of the Vocal School. The number of pupils studying music at the Institute last year was eighty-two. The course in Elocution is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this branch. The Art department is admirably equipped with casts, copies, etc.; the instruction is thorough. The studio consists of a suite of four rooms. The course in the Porter School of Business Training is one of the best of the kind offered anywhere. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years, elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue.

Expenses, for board, tuition, church sitting, furnished room and washing, from $210 to $220 per year. Reduced rates to children of clergymen.

The School is located in one of the most delightful and healthful portions of the Mohawk Valley, about midway between Albany and Utica, on the New York Central and West Shore railroads. Twelve passenger trains from the West and twelve from the East stop at Fort Plain daily.

Students under thirteen years of age are not admitted.

Hervey, Ph.D., Canton.

Faculty. — Charles V. Parsell, A.M., President; Anna C. Marston, Lady Principal. Sixteen competent instructors are employed in the various departments appertaining to a first-class academic institution.

The value of the buildings and equipment is at least $125,000. The other property consists of the general endowment of $25,000 and the John Westover Scholarship Fund of $10,000. The income of the Scholarship Fund is used (1) for the benefit of students fitting for the Theological School at Canton, N. Y., and pursuing college preparatory studies; and (2) for the benefit of students of limited means who are not preparing for the ministry, but whose parents are Universalists.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of study are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending College, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however; much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is conducted by Miss L. M. Kendall, whose method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is taught by Mrs. Etta Besse Miller, a contralto soloist of reputation, and a teacher of experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of seventeen hundred volumes.

Fund. — The permanent fund amounts to about $23,000, and will be materially increased by the bequest of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre.

Expenses. — Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $9 per term. Ten free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements.

NECROLOGY.

The deaths of the following-named preachers, or former preachers in the Universalist Church, eighteen in all, have occurred since the Register for 1890 went to press. We preface the list with a notice of one who died in 1888. Limited space necessitates only a brief mention of each.

ISAAC M. WESTFALL, M.D., born in Miami Co., Ohio, March 18, 1821, died at Watertown, Dakota, Dec. 29, 1888. Early in life he gave some attention to the study of medicine, but becoming deeply interested in Universalism, fitted himself for the ministry and was ordained at Franklin, Iowa, Aug. 3, 1845. His first settlement was at Iowa City, but he also spent much time in general missionary work in the territory. He was next at Macomb, Ill., afterwards at Lafayette, Ind., and then as missionary in Minnesota. Renewing his interest in the study of medicine, he settled again in Macomb, Ill., where he could enjoy the benefit of a medical school. Returning to Rochester, Minn., he practised medicine a few years, and again resumed missionary labors. About ten years ago he made his home at Watertown, Dak., where he was for a few years a city official. For a short time he was associated with Rev. Erasmus Manford in editing the "Western Universalist and Christian Teacher," published in Lafayette, Ind., 1844-9.

HARVEY BOUGHTON, born at Kelloggsville, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1815, died at Silver Springs, N. Y., Nov. 15, 1889. He was fortunate in his birth, having Universalist parents, and early in life he selected the ministry in the Universalist Church as his vocation. His theological training was under the direction of George W. Montgomery, D.D., and he was fellowshipped by the Cayuga Association in September 1835. In September, 1837, he was ordained at Scipio, N. Y. His pastorates were at Scipio (twice), Watertown, Farmer's Village, N. Y.; Brooklyn, Penn., and Macedon, N. Y. Owing to paralysis of the vocal organs, he was compelled to relinquish public services in the winter of 1883. During the late Rebellion Mr. Boughton was in service a little more than a year, as chaplain of the 97th Regiment, colored troops, but resigned on the death of his oldest son, who was an officer in the same regiment. "As a clergyman he was always dignified and earnest. As a pastor he was a most successful peacemaker; harmony always prevailed in his parishes. As a preacher he was specially gifted in expression, always using the choicest language. His sermons were all of the class denominated spiritual. Those who listened to them regularly soon found it a duty to enter the Christian Church. As an organizer of churches he was very successful."

HENRY SCOTT WHITE, born in Boston, Mass., Feb. 14, 1861, died in Boston, Dec. 14, 1889. He was a student in Tufts Divinity School, and held a license to preach. He had supplied several pulpits while connected with the school, and had given indications of power for great influence; but, before completing his course of study, he was stricken with what proved to be incurable disease, and after a year of severe illness, borne with great patience and fortitude, he passed on to the heavenly home. A true Christian man, he would have achieved great success and have honored the Christian ministry, had his life been prolonged on the earth.

HORATIO NELSON STRONG, born Sept. 1, 1805, died at Lancaster, Wis., Jan. 1, 1890. He was ordained in the Methodist Church in Ohio in 1825. In 1841 he joined the Swedenborgians, and preached in their connection until 1872, when he was fellowshipped by the Universalists. He had no pastoral settlement with us, but preached as opportunity served till about 1885, when growing infirmities put a stop to his public labors.

BENJAMIN MARSHALL TILLOTSON, born in Oxford, Me., March 20, 1819, died at White River Junction, Vt., Jan. 17, 1890. His early education was obtained in the district and town schools, at the academy in Plainfield, N. H., and the seminary at Newbury, Vt. Entering the employ of the late Eli Ballou, D.D., in the printing office of the "Christian Repository," the purpose he had already formed to fit himself for the ministry received fresh incitement. His first sermon was preached in his native town, in 1841, and he was ordained at Concord, Vt., in the summer of 1843. His first pastorate, begun at Manchester, N. H., in 1844, continued till the fall of 1859, when he became pastor of the Second Church in Philadelphia, and two years later took charge of the 2d Society in Manchester, N. H., until 1871.

He then removed to St. Johnsbury, Vt., where he was pastor twelve years. Then, after a pastorate of five years at Woodstock, Vt., he had charge of parishes at Pomfret, Enfield Centre and White River Junction; preaching his last sermon Dec. 15, 1889. A severe cold, taken two months before, developed into ulceration of the throat and stomach, rendering it impossible for him to receive nourishment. A man of commanding presence, unusual gifts of intellect, a sympathetic speaker, and possessing rare social qualities, he filled a large place, and is greatly missed in his home and in the Church at large.

WILLIAM KNOTT, born in Oldham, Lancashire, Eng., died in Friendship, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1890. He was of Methodist parentage, and at one time meditated entering the ministry of that Church; but, on becoming acquainted with English Unitarianism, he cordially embraced its theology. His preparation for the ministry began at New College, Manchester, Eng. In 1866 he came to America, and finished his theological course in the Unitarian School at Meadville, Penn. His first settlement was at Smithville, Ontario, Can., and preaching a portion of the time at Port Dover. He was ordained in the Universalist fellowship at Orino, Ontario, June 16, 1869. He had two pastorates of three years each in Clarendon, N. Y., a three years' pastorate in Webster, and also labored as pastor in Scipio, Ridgeway, and Leroy, in the same State. He was well equipped for his work, and was industrious, sincere and effective as preacher and pastor. Rev. Dr. Livermore, president of the Meadville School, thus speaks of him: "No one that I have ever known seemed more fully steeped and possessed by the spirit of Christ than Mr. Knott. It shone in every look, and breathed in every tone of his voice. That such a man should do good in his ministry was as natural as breathing; and, had he enjoyed more vigorous health and strength, he would have filled up to the full the measure of usefulness to which he aspired."

GUSTAVUS VASA MAXHAM, born in Pomfret, Vt., June 29, 1829, died in Monson, Mass., March 10, 1890. He was a graduate of the Meadville Theological School (Unitarian), and was ordained in 1850. His pastorates were at Erie, Penn.; Medford, Mass.; New Haven and Stafford, Conn.

In all these places he had charge, entirely or in part, of the public schools. He ceased to be active in the ministry about four years ago, although he preached occasionally until a short time before his death. "A great, peaceful, contented soul was his, loving actually all mankind, and leaving on record or in memory not one hasty or unloving word."

ALEXANDER HILL, who died at West Paris, Me., March 18, 1890, aged eighty years, came into the Universalist fellowship from the Baptist ministry, in 1857. He was an exemplary Christian, and lived a long and useful life, making a record on which his kindred and friends dwell with great satisfaction.

JAMES CHANDLER PARTRIDGE, born in Templeton, Mass., Sept. 1, 1822, died at Nyack, N. Y., May 16, 1890. He was a licentiate of the New York Convention, his license bearing date 1874, and held by him until failing health some four years ago compelled its surrender. He was a man of good gifts and abilities, and leaves a precious remembrance of his work and his worth.

JUDSON FISHER, born at Walpole, N. H., Nov. 13, 1824, died at Alton, Ill., May 18, 1890. He was ordained at Hartland, Vt., Nov. 22, 1849. His subsequent pastorates were at Marlborough, N. H.; Shelburne Falls, Mass.; Alstead, Lebanon, N. H.; Janesville, Whitewater, Monroe, Wis.; Alton, Sheffield, Ill.; and Cincinnati, O.; the three last being Unitarian parishes. The cause of his death was chronic bronchitis. His intimate acquaintance and friend for many years, Rev. Dr. J. S. Lee, says: "Mr. Fisher was a conscientious, even-minded man. He ever sought the good of his fellow-men. During the latter half of his ministry of more than forty years he labored with the Unitarians, though I do not know that he ever severed his connection with the Universalist denomination, in which he was educated and ordained. Whatever his denominational relations, he could not be anything but a Universalist in sentiment."

JOHN STEPHEN FALL, born in Chatham, N. B., June 25, 1828, died at Minneapolis, Minn., May 27, 1890. A Methodist in early life, he became a believer in Universalism a few years after establishing himself in mercantile business in Minnesota, in 1855; and, entering the Theological School at Canton, N. Y., graduated therefrom in 1870. He was ordained at Milwaukee, Wis., June 8, 1871, and had pastorates in the following order: Racine and Neenah—Menasha, Wis.; Dowagiac, Mich.; Lafayette, Ind.; a second settlement at Dowagiac, Mich.; and Wausau, Wis. While at Wausau his health became impaired, and he was compelled to retire from the active ministry in 1883, at which time he returned to Minneapolis to reside, and during the remainder of his days preached as he found strength and opportunity, freely giving his services to advance the cause in Minnesota. His last illness was of brief duration, and his death was caused by congestion of the lungs. He was an earnest preacher, and a man of great persistence in fitting himself for usefulness, and patience in bearing life's ills and trials.

JAMES JOHNSON TWISS, born Oct. 12, 1820, died at Whitman, Mass., July 14, 1890. He was ordained at Danvers, Mass., Jan. 25, 1846, and had settlements at North Granby, Winstead, Stamford, Stafford, Conn.; Springfield, New Bedford, Lowell, Mass.; Norwich, Conn.; and Auburn, N. Y. In 1875 he took charge of the Unitarian Church at Chelmsford, Mass., and during the remainder of his life preached in the fellowship of that denomination. He was a man of fine attainments, pleasing address and excellent Christian character.

ADIN BALLOU, born in Cumberland, R. I., April 23, 1803, died at Hopedale, Mass., Aug. 5, 1890. After a religious experience in boyhood, whose influence on his life and character never ceased, he joined the so-called "Christian Connexion," at twelve years of age, preached his first sermon just after he had entered his nineteenth year, and was "soon after accepted as an approved minister" of that sect. At this time he believed that some of the race would be "finally impenitent," and that their doom would be annihilation. In a short time, by reading and attempting to controvert the doctrines defended in Elhanan Winchester's "Dialogues on Universal Restoration," Mr. Ballou found, as he says, "that I must amend my theological finalities and substitute Restorationism for Destructionism." He then entered the Universalist ministry, and had pastoral settlements in Milford, Mass., New York City, and again in Milford. In 1831 he was one of the leaders in what is known as the "Restorationist secession" from our Church; and, during the ten years which that organized movement lasted, he was intensely active in promoting its interests, not only with his voice but also with his pen as editor of its organ, "The Independent Messenger." From 1831 he had a pastorate at Mendon, Mass., eleven years, then in Hopdale from 1842 to 1880. Since that time until shortly before his death he preached at large, as health would permit. Active for many years in the "great leading reforms,—temperance, anti-slavery, woman's rights, the peace cause, and practical Christian socialism,"—he was led by his interest in the latter to engage in the establishment at Hopdale of "a practical Christian community." In 1887 he wrote of his sixty-six years as a preacher: "During this long ministry I have delivered a vast number of sermons and lectures, have officiated at nearly 2,500 funerals, solemnized nearly 1,150 marriages, edited three several periodicals for terms amounting to about thirty years of time, executed as author three large octavo volumes, several smaller-sized ones, with pamphlets and tracts too numerous to mention, also several volumes stored away in manuscript for posterity." Although, as the above shows, Mr. Ballou was not for many years connected with our denominational organization, he was a firm believer in, and eloquent defender of, the doctrines set forth in the Winchester Profession of Faith, and was a man of consecrated life and of unwearied and successful effort in doing good.

NELSON ALVIN SAXTON, born in Lewis County, N. Y., July 26, 1831, died at Marshall, Mich., Aug. 18, 1890. For several years of early manhood he was a school teacher, but, feeling called to the ministry, was ordained at Laporte, O., Aug. 26, 1860, and had pastoral settlements at Westfield, O., Lambertville, Mich., Blanchester, and Belleville, O., Manchester, Mich., Bluffton, Ind., and Marshall, Mich. For two years he was State missionary of Ohio, and preached in many localities; but his places of residence are named above. He was also a volunteer in the service of his country one year during the late war. His last ministerial service—a union temperance sermon—was rendered in the Presbyterian Church in Marshall, on the evening of the first Sunday in June. His last sickness was distressingly painful, and he felt assured from its beginning that it was a sickness unto death. Calmly making all needful arrangements, he waited patiently the coming of the hour of release. A brother minister who knew him well thus writes concerning him: "A faithful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, and an exemplary, God-fearing and Christ-loving brother, has been called home. The Church is richer for his life, and in his death he leaves us a legacy of a spotless life, a pure character and an untarnished ministry. He rests from his labors, and his works follow him."

JOSIAH CROSBY WALDO, born in Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 5, 1803, died at New London, Conn., Aug. 28, 1890. Educated at Chesterfield, N. H., Academy, he studied for the ministry under the direction of Rev. Hosea Ballou. His first settlement was at Cincinnati, O., where he was ordained in 1827. Afterwards he had pastorates at Lynn, West Cambridge, Mass.; Troy, N. Y.; New London, Conn. He retired from active ministerial service several years ago.

ABEL FLETCHER, born in Richmond, Va., Feb. 22, 1820, died at Massillon, O., August 13, 1890. He was ordained in 1842, and had settlements in Lynchburg, Va., and Weare, N. H. For several years he itinerated at Harper's Ferry, Shepherdstown, and other localities in Virginia. About 1850 he went into secular business in Massillon, O., and shortly after was, by accident, deprived of eyesight. Cheerful, hopeful, resigned in the midst of all his troubles, he maintained an unsullied reputation, and was ever a genial, sincere and Christian man.

MARY THOMAS Clark, born in Sydd, Kent, Eng., Dec. 24, 1814, died in Richmond, Ind., Sept. 15, 1890. In early life an Episcopalian, she afterwards became a Baptist, and, outgrowing that creed, she found for several years a congenial home with the Progressive Friends, among whom she became a preacher. In 1851 she emigrated to America, and, while living in Dublin, Ind., twenty years later, her attention was drawn to Universalism, into the belief of which she soon grew "by Bible study and soul conviction," as she expressed it; and was fellowshipped by the Universalist Convention of Indiana in 1875, since which time she has been "a zealous and consistent advocate of the gospel of peace and reconciliation." Her pastorate for several years was in the churches of Mt. Carmel, Union, Ireland and Fairfield. During the last seven years she gave herself to missionary work, and, notwithstanding her increasing years and infirmities, travelled far and wide all over the State, proclaiming the Gospel she loved. She was a woman of great energy, and her zeal and usefulness bore precious fruit. She was widely known and greatly beloved.

LEMUEL HUTCHINS TABOR, born at Topsham, Vt., Dec. 3, 1809, died at Bryant's Pond, Me., Sept. 27, 1890. He studied for the ministry under Rev. Kittredge Haven, was fellowshiped by the Champlain Association in June, 1837, and was ordained at Calais, Vt., in June, 1838. His pastorates were at Calais, Plainfield, St. Johnsbury, Lyndon, Burke, West Charleston, Derby Line, West Concord, Vt.; Norway, Me.; West Burke, Island Pond, Vt.; Bryant's Pond, Me. He represented West Concord in the Vermont Legislature in 1860, 1861 and 1862, and was Senator from Essex County, in 1864-65. "He had a long and successful ministry, and not a few are they who will affectionately recall the memory of him who has been with them in seasons of joy and grief."

SAMUEL WILLIAM EATON, born in Concord, Erie County, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1815, died at Rochester, Minn., Oct. 12, 1890. In his early life he was a Methodist, his parents being of that persuasion. He preached his first sermon in 1842, at which time he had become a believer in Universalism, "and thereafter, as the opportunity offered, supplying Universalist pulpits or speaking in school-houses where he could obtain a hearing for the faith 'everywhere spoken against.'" He was ordained at Princeton, Wis., Dec. 24, 1860. After that time he preached several years in towns adjacent to his own, and supplied frequently the church in Rochester, to whose interests he was always devoted, and in the upbuilding of which he lent valuable and untiring aid." At the breaking out of the War of the Rebellion he rendered service to his country as a journalist. He has also held various positions of trust and honor in the city and county where he made his home. "He commanded universal respect," says his pastor, the Rev. W. H. McGlauffin, "and those who disagreed with him never had occasion to suspect his uprightness, and never was the charge of unfaithfulness laid at his door."

In making the statements on the following pages accurate, every effort possible to the publisher and editor has been put forth. But the sad fact that many preachers pay no heed to requests for information explains why the names of so many parishes are printed in italics. Doubtless many errors are thus repeated year after year, no one having the facts necessary for their correction except those who withhold them from our knowledge. More preachers have responded this fall than on former occasions, and it is hoped that improvement in this respect will continue until accuracy is assured.

The Secretaries of several State Conventions have rendered valuable aid. Important service has also been afforded by many of the Secretaries of the State organizations of the Young People's Christian Union, and by the Secretary of the General Convention.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

“The Universalist General Convention,” having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session — 1893 — will be held at such place as may be selected by the Board of Trustees, on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, T. J. Sawyer, D.D. The convention is composed of the Presidents (or, in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, “to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies.” In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention, as reported in October, 1891, aggregate $247,095.65, and are distributed as follows: —

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $126,249.53. The income of this fund is used "in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause."

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $35,759.30 and the income is appropriated to loans to new students.

III. Church Extension Fund Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $7,974.71.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $8,000, "to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination," except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $12,161.90.

V. Ada Tibbetts Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbetts of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., moderately valued at $60 per acre, subject to a lien of $4,100, on condition that he is to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income shall be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He has since conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill., valued at $3,600, subject to a lien of $2,000. The property is under contracts of sale, and its value over and above the liens is $9,260.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $14,000.

VIII. William H. Ryder Fund. $25,000. The income only to be used, "at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for the education of young persons for the ministry of the Universalist Church." But the Board may, in a certain contingency, apply a portion of such income "to the credit of any Missionary or Church Extension Fund" under their control and direction.

IX. Draper Fund. The late Mr. Eben D. Draper of Boston, Mass., bequeathed to the General Convention the sum of $2,000, to be expended for missionary purposes in the Western States. Present amount of the Fund, $1,600.

X. The "T" Fund. A lady of New York, who desires that her name shall not at present be published, has paid $5,050 to the Convention, as the beginning of a Fund, the income of which shall be paid to her during her natural life, and thereafter shall be added to the Theological Scholarship Fund.

XI. Henry P. Porter Fund. $1,000.

XII. Guaranty Fund. $347.29.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1890-91 was $12,239.92. The appropriations for the Convention year 1891-92, are $22,200, with whatever surplus of income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed "to provide for a Universalist Church Conference or Conferences, to be held at some central location or locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education."

A mission to Japan was established in 1890, the sum of $62,000, one-fifth payable annually, having been subscribed. The missionary, George L. Perin, D.D., and his assistants, Rev. I. Wallace Cate and Miss Margaret C. Schouler, have their headquarters at Tokyo.

This enterprise has been greatly blessed and prospered. A convenient house for teaching and worship has been erected, in which services are held every Sunday; and schools are in operation during the week. A church of ten native members has been organized, a Sunday-school with twenty children, and a Bible class of about as many young men; a Theological school with six students and an English school with about forty pupils. Two native preachers have been licensed to preach, and are doing excellent work.

The officers of the Convention are :—

It has published and distributed editions of sixty-eight valuable tracts, aggregating 5,000,000 pages.

The Association meets at the time and place of the session of the General Convention, and special meetings are held during the year in connection with the session of the State Conventions where its work is organized. It is supported by annual, life and patron memberships, and by voluntary contributions. Annual member-

STATISTICS.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dov.) that the society is inactive. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedications is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention Secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

Parishes that have not reported for this issue of the Register have their names printed in italics.

SCOTLAND.

The Universalists of Scotland, in 1875, organized a Convention which meets annually on the last Saturday in May. It is a small body, composed of only two churches—one in Glasgow and the other in Larbert. The church at Larbert owns the building in which it worships, and is known as the Church of the Redeemer; that at Glasgow worships at Claremont St., and is known as St. Paul's Universalist Church. There are several preaching stations and much unorganized Universalism. The officers of the Scotland Convention are: Honorary Presidents—J. W. Hanson, D.D., and Rev. Mrs. C. A. Soule; Pres.—Andrew Ure; Vice-Pres.—A. Gardner; Sec.—John Currie, 39 Hope St., Glasgow; Treas.—William Bogle; Trus.—Messrs. Rough-ead, Binnie, Smith of Larbert, Hamilton and Sinclair of Glasgow; Missionary—Rev. Caroline A. Soule, 24 Kelvin Drive, Kelvinbridge, Glasgow.

Vice-Pres. Woman's Centenary Association—Mrs. Mary M. Thompson, Glasgow.

St. Paul's Universalist Church worships (at 11 A.M., 2 and 7 P.M.) every Sunday in its church on Claremont St., Glasgow. Number of families, forty; church of one hundred and sixty members, organized in March, 1879; Sunday-school organized in June, 1879, forty members. Church edifice constructed of iron, erected in 1891, valued at $2,500. Other property, $500.

Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the college to an intellectual centre like Boston affords, — libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D.B. is conferred upon A.B.'s who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments. To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the new Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailling supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected eight years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76x40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. It has proved valuable in many ways. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily calisthenics, under the supervision of Miss Blanche Sargent. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages of the highest order at the least cost to students. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German, French and Italian. Piano music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodell, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. His sister, Miss Hanna Bodell, whose training has been conducted by eminent European masters, came to this country to accept the position of piano assistant and teacher of pipe organ, and entered upon her duties September, 1890. Miss Nellie Hill Otis is at the head of the Vocal School. The number of pupils studying music at the Institute last year was eighty-two. The course in Elocution is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this branch. The Art department is admirably equipped with casts, copies, etc.; the instruction is thorough. The studio consists of a suite of four rooms. The course in the Porter School of Business Training is one of the best of the kind offered anywhere. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years, elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue.

The School is located in one of the most delightful and healthful portions of the Mohawk Valley, about midway between Albany and Utica, on the New York Central and West Shore Railroads. Twelve passenger trains from the West and twelve from the East stop at Fort Plain daily.

The value of the buildings, grounds and equipment is at least $125,000. The other property consists of the general endowment of $25,000 and the John Westover Scholarship Fund of $10,000. The income of the Scholarship Fund is used (1) for the benefit of students fitting for the Theological School at Canton, N. ### GODDARD SEMINARY.

The seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of studies are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending College, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is well conducted and the method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is also taught by a teacher of reputation and experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of seventeen hundred volumes.

A new gymnasium erected and equipped by the alumni and friends, gives ample opportunity for physical development. Care will be taken to have proper physical examination, and exercise will be in charge of competent instructors.

Fund. — The permanent fund amounts to about $23,000; and will be materially increased by the bequest of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre.

Expenses. — Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $9 per term. Ten free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements.

NECROLOGY.

Since the publication of the Register for 1891, the following-named preachers, eleven in all, have died.

MASSENA BERTHIER BALLOU, born in Dana, Mass., Nov. 28, 1800, died at Stoughton, Mass., Dec. 10, 1890. He was the second son of the eminent Rev. Hosea Ballou, by whom he was fitted for the ministry. He began to preach in 1822, and was ordained at Hartland, Vt., Sept. 22, 1825. His first pastorate was of four years' duration, at Charlton, Mass. His second and final one was at Stoughton, Mass., lasting twenty-two years. He married in December, 1825, and his four children survive him, living near his old home-stead in Stoughton. When ill health compelled him to relinquish the ministry, he at once became a faithful parishioner, and was ever in his place in the sanctuary service, even after his defective hearing prevented his catching a syllable that was spoken. Genial and cheerful in spirit, he adorned the profession of the gospel with a godly life and a well-ordered conversation.

SANFORD PRESTON SMITH, born in Bingham, Me., Feb. 5, 1846, died at Skowhegan, Me., March 22, 1891. Mr. Smith was formerly a printer, and for several years was foreman in the office of the "Gospel Banner." Entering the theological school at Canton, N. Y., he graduated therefrom in the summer of 1871, and was ordained at Claremont, N. H., May 22, 1872. His pastorates were in Claremont, Peabody, Mass., Hightstown, N. J., Winthrop and Readfield, Me., Marblehead, Mass., East Boston, Mass., Thompsonville, Conn., and Skowhegan and N. Anson, Me. A devoted, self-sacrificing preacher and pastor, a writer always ready and versatile, he added to his mental gifts a fine musical taste and great ability as a leader of congregational singing, his services in this latter respect being in great demand at grove meetings and on special occasions of continuous meetings. Genial, courteous, conscientious in his work, studious, upright, and spiritual-minded, he was a faithful Christian minister, and his departure so early in life is deeply lamented by the church which he served so well.

WILLIAM C. DAVIDSON died at Thornton, Ala., March 29, 1891, aged seventy-three years. Our information concerning him is limited to the following brief statement from the pen of Rev. J. C. Burruss: "Calmly and resignedly he departed, firm in the faith he had preached to others. He came to us about fourteen years ago, from the Baptists, and during his last sickness expressed his regret that he had not seen the light of the gospel of universal redemption earlier in life. He died full of faith and hope, and left the aroma of a good name."

GAMALIEL COLLINS, born in Provincetown, Mass., Oct. 7, 1816, died at Chatham, Mass., April 24, 1891. For several years before attaining his majority he followed the sea, and rose to the position of mate with the noted Hon. Nathaniel E. Atwood, then commanding a brig making voyages from Provincetown to the West Indies and other distant ports. Early in his manhood he resolved to enter the Universalist ministry. Pursuing classical studies at Waterville, Me., and teaching school at Castine and Hallowell in the same State, his name first appears in the Register as a new preacher, located at Waterville, in 1841. He was ordained in 1842. His first settlement was at Yarmouth Port, Mass., in 1844 and 1845; then at Newton Upper Falls in 1846, and from 1847 to 1854 at Hudson, N. Y., when, on account of failing sight, he relinquished pastoral work and removed to Philadelphia, where, until the breaking out of the war, he had a denominational and miscellaneous book store. During the rebellion he was chaplain of the 72d regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. As a chaplain he was faithful and courageous, his bravery being especially conspicuous at Antietam, where his horse was shot under him, and he received severe and lasting injuries by the fall. At the close of the war he was commissioned chaplain in the regular army, and served at the military posts in Kansas, Colorado, Washington, Wyoming and Alaska. Retired several years ago on generous pay, he made his home until the day of his death at Chatham, the early home of his devoted wife, who suddenly departed this life some two years ago. Mr. Collins was a man of extensive and accurate reading, especially in European history. He was a forceful writer and a good preacher.

ASHER MOORE, born in Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 13, 1810, died at Hammonton, N. J., April 27, 1891. Although of Quaker parentage, he became a Universalist early in life, and began to preach in 1831, receiving ordination in 1832. His pastorates were at Reading, Pa., New London, Conn., Hartford, Conn. (two settlements), Roxbury, Mass., Lombard Street church, Philadelphia, Hightstown, N. J., New York City, Church of the Messiah, Philadelphia, Newark, N. J., Springfield, Vt., Claremont, N. H., Norwich, Conn., Joliet, Ill., Cleveland, Ohio, Brooklyn, N. Y., Easton, Pa., and Hammonton, N. J. He has been well characterized as "one of the stalwart men of the Universalist ministry. . . a deep thinker, particularly of the older school, yet always a learner. He was a grand orator; voice, bearing and vocalization were his by birth, and there was majesty as well as power when he stood before a congregation to give his message." In 1840-43 he was one of the editors of "The Nazarene," a weekly Universalist paper, published in Philadelphia. He was also author, in 1840, of "A Memoir of the late Rev. Savillion W. Fuller;" in 1841, of "Universalist Belief: or the Doctrinal Views of Universalists;" in 1847, of "Universalism the Doctrine of the Bible;" and of numerous pamphlets and tracts.

WILLIAM WOODFORD CLAYTON, formerly quite active in our ministry in the West, though of late engaged in secular business in Chicago, Ill., died suddenly in that city, April 29, aged fifty-seven years. "A certain timidity prevented a large acquaintance and interfered with pastoral usefulness, though his intellectual force was recognized. His record, we believe, was unstained."

ALEXANDER GRETTON LAURIE died at Erie, Pa., May 3, 1891, aged seventy-five years. Mr. Laurie's name first appears in the Register in 1842 as a new preacher, located at Mason, Ohio. In 1843, the year of his ordination, he was at Simcoe, Can., then at London, Can.; from 1849 to 1853 at Buffalo, N. Y., from 1853 to 1863 at Charlestown, Mass., from 1863 to 1865 at Newark, N. J., 1865 to 1874 at Erie, Pa., his last settlement. He was intensely loyal to Scotland, his native land, and never became a naturalized citizen of the United States. Thoroughly familiar with Scotch philosophy and literature, and passionately fond of its poetry, he probably had no peer as an interpreter of Burns. Himself a poet of no inferior order, and a writer of purest English, he was a strong thinker, and in the days of his activity was a mighty champion of the truths of revealed religion.

GILBERT FOSTER BARNES, the son of Rev. G. W. Barnes, born in the city of New York, June 8, 1854, died at Morrison, Ill., May 18, 1891. Graduating with honor at Clinton Liberal Institute, he took the prescribed course of theological training at the theological school at Canton, graduating in 1879, and taking a pastorate at Gaysville, Vt. He was ordained at Bethel, Vt., Sept. 1, 1880. Subsequently he was pastor at Oswego, N. Y., Tidioute, Pa., the Church of our Father, North Chicago, and had just commenced his labors at Morrison, Ill., when he was stricken down by typhoid fever. His ministry has been useful, and gave promise of still greater usefulness. His grand physique seemed fitted to cope with any malady, and indicated that his days would be long upon the earth; but it pleased God to take him from us.

JONATHAN MARSH JOHNS died at Salina, Kan., September 24, of consumption, in his fifty-first year. A graduate of the Canton Theological School in 1876, his first settlement was at Hammond, N. Y., where he was ordained May 27, 1877. He was also for a short time at Shelburne Falls, Mass., and at Claremont, N. H. In 1883 he went to Kansas on account of failing health. He has not been able to preach, except occasionally, for several years. For months he has expected and desired the summons to go hence. Rev. Mr. Barnes communicates to "The Universalist": "Up to the very last moment of Bro. John's life, his mind was clear and he dictated a brief history of his conversion to Universalism and labors in the ministry, with quite a lengthy war record. It is the voice of those who knew him best that he had a very successful ministry, and his character was above reproach."

MRS. SARAH C. PRATT died suddenly at North Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 2, 1891. She has been for some months in charge of the parishes at Marshfield and North Montpelier, where she was industrious and intent on the duties of her chosen calling. "Her career in the ministry was brief indeed, still she left results, in sowing many a seed of truth."

NATHANIEL CRARY, born July 27, 1823, died in Hicksville, Ohio, Oct. 7, 1891. He was ordained in 1856, and "leaves an honored record among us. He was a man of the most genial character and great kindness of heart. A pioneer preacher, living on his own farm, he ministered to churches in Ohio and Indiana with unusual acceptance. He was always welcome at our gatherings, and brought with him a sunny presence and an atmosphere of good cheer, which was always delightful. We will meet him no more on earth, but his memory will abide." His death was caused by paralysis, and to all appearance was painless.

UNIVERSALIST REGISTER, 1893.

The following pages are not as accurate as they ought to be nor as they would have been if repeated calls for information had been heeded by those who could have given it. It is very certain that errors of statement as to the condition of all parish interests are repeated, greatly to our detriment, year after year, because so many pay no heed to the appeals made by the publisher and editor. It is hoped that we make some advance each year towards accuracy, and it is believed that by persistent effort we may some time succeed in obtaining reports from all.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The Universalist General Convention, having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session — 1893 — will be held at such place as may be selected by the Board of Trustees, on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, T. J. Sawyer, D.D. The Convention is composed of the Presidents (or, in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention, as reported at the Conference in Buffalo, N. Y., in October, 1892, aggregate $254,645.85, and are distributed as follows:—

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $126,249.53. The income of this fund is used "in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause."

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $41,255.05, and the income is appropriated to loans to new students.

III. Church Extension Fund. Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $8,124.63.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $8,000, "to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination," except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $12,411.43.

V. Ada Tibbetts Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbetts of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., moderately valued at $60 per acre, subject to a lien of $4,100, on condition that he is to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income shall be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He has since conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill., valued at $3,600, subject to a lien of $2,000. The property is under contracts of sale, and its value over and above the liens is $9,260.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $14,000.

VIII. William H. Ryder Fund. $25,000. The income only to be used, "at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for the education of young persons for the ministry of the Universalist Church." But the Board may, in a certain contingency, apply a portion of such income "to the credit of any Missionary or Church Extension Fund" under their control and direction.

IX. Draper Fund. The late Mr. Eben D. Draper of Boston, Mass., bequeathed to the General Convention the sum of $2,000, to be expended for missionary purposes in the western States. Present amount of the fund, $1,400.

X. The "T" Fund. A lady of New York, who desires that her name shall not at present be published, has paid $6,905 to the Convention as the beginning of a fund, the income of which shall be paid to her during her natural life, and thereafter shall be added to the Theological Scholarship Fund.

XI. Henry P. Porter Fund. $1,000.

XII. Guaranty Fund. $347.29.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1891-92 was $7,550.20. The appropriations for the Convention year 1892-93 are $22,200, with whatever surplus of income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed "to provide for a Universalist Church Conference or Conferences, to be held at some central location or locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education." The Conference for 1892 was held at Buffalo, N. Y.

A mission to Japan was established in 1890, the sum of $62,000, one-fifth payable annually, having been subscribed. Details in regard to this mission are given on page 61.

Dating from 1875 the Association has, during a large portion of the time, supported a missionary in Scotland. Rev. Marion Crosley, J. W. Hanson, D.D., Rev. Caroline A. Soule and Rev. Charles A. C. Garst — the latter still in the field — have been so employed. It also shares with the General Convention in sustaining a missionary in Texas. It has published and distributed editions of sixty-eight valuable tracts, aggregating 6,000,000 pages.

The Association meets at the time and place of the session of the General Convention, and special meetings are held during the year in connection with the session of the State Conventions where its work is organized. It is supported by annual, life and patron memberships, and by voluntary contributions. Annual memberships, $1; life memberships, $25; patron, $100. It reported to the General Convention in October, 1892, total receipts for the year, $3,634.12; disbursements, $3,618.29; permanent fund, $10,603.

The Society is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts. It has a library of about three thousand volumes, besides important manuscripts and papers. This library has been of great help in tracing the history and fortunes of our distinguishing faith in other countries and times. ## STATISTICS.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive; || that the parish is not in formal fellowship. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedications is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

Parishes that have not reported for this issue of the Register have their names printed in italics.

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL OF TUFTS COLLEGE.

Leonard, D.D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology and Dean of the Divinity School; W. G. Tousey, A.M., D.B., Professor of Psychology and Natural Theology; Rev. G. T. Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the college to an intellectual centre like Boston affords, — libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D.B. is conferred upon A.B.'s who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments. To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailing supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected ten years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76x40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily callisthenics. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages of the highest order at the least cost to students. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the Department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German and French. Piano music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodell, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. His sister, Miss Hannah Bodell, whose training has been conducted by eminent European masters, came to this country to accept the position of piano assistant and teacher of pipe organ, and entered upon her duties September, 1890. The second piano assistant is Miss Lena A. Branson, one of Prof. Bodell's graduates and a teacher of experience. Mrs. C. V. Parsell is at the head of the Vocal School. The number of pupils studying music at the Institute last year was over one hundred. The course in Elocution is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this branch. The Art department is admirably equipped with casts, copies, etc.; the instruction is thorough. The studio consists of a suite of four rooms. The course in the Porter School of Business Training is one of the best of the kind offered anywhere. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years; elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue. The boys' department is on a military basis. The commandant is an officer of the United States Army. Muskets, cannon and ammunition are supplied by the War Department. The new brick armory, with clear floor space 150x80 feet, is one of the largest school armories in the United States.

Expenses, for board, tuition, church sitting, furnished room and washing, from $220 to $255 per year. Reduced rates to children of clergymen. The attendance during the year ending June, 1892, was 275.

The School is located in one of the most delightful and healthful portions of the Mohawk Valley, about midway between Albany and Utica, on the New York Central and West Shore Railroads. Twelve passenger trains from the West and twelve from the East stop at Fort Plain daily.

Students under thirteen years of age are not admitted.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of studies are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending college, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is well conducted and the method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is also taught by a teacher of reputation and experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of seventeen hundred volumes.

A new gymnasium erected and equipped by the alumni and friends gives ample opportunity for physical development. Care will be taken to have proper physical examination, and exercise will be in charge of competent instructors.

Fund.—The permanent fund amounts to about $23,000, and will be materially increased by the bequests of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre, and Jehill Weston of North Randolph.

Expenses.—Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $10 per term. Ten free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements.

NECROLOGY.

The deaths of the following-named preachers, or former preachers in the Universalist Church, twenty in all, have occurred since the publication of the REGISTER for 1892.

FREDERICK HERBRECHTER, born in London, England, died at Stevens Point, Wis., Nov. 12, 1891. He was originally a Congregationalist and preached for some time at Saluda, Iowa. Afterwards he more closely sympathized with the Methodists but never joined their communion. He was fellowshipped by the Universalist Convention of Wisconsin in 1889, and preached occasionally in several places near his residences at Norris and Stevens Point, Wis., but had no pastoral settlement, and his work was in places where we had no organization. "He suffered greatly from spinal trouble, caused by exposure and hard work as a nurse during the late war, and was in constant pain," a fact which often led those ignorant of the nature of his difficulty to speak of him as insane or of unsound mind. One who knew him well says that "he was honest and zealous, had a mind richly versed in Christian thought and had an eloquent tongue." His age was near sixty years.

EDWIN DAVIS, born in Marlboro', N. H., May 8, 1821, died in Quincy, Mass., Dec. 28, 1891. He fitted for the ministry under the direction of Rev. W. N. Barber; preached his first sermon at Vernon, Vt., Nov. 20, 1842, and was ordained at Winchester, N. H., June 19, 1845. His pastorates were at Marlboro', Richmond, Hinsdale, Paper Mill Village, N. H., West Acton, Canton and Rockport, Mass. A man of eminently saintly character, he was loyal in all things to the Christian Church and faithful in the discharge of every duty. For a brief time secretary of the Massachusetts Universalist Convention and for many years secretary of its Committee of Fellowship, he was faithful and thorough in his work and was greatly beloved by his brethren. He was an able preacher, a model pastor and the light and joy of his own home. The last five years of his life were years of feebleness, the result of an attack of apoplexy. Patiently waiting the time of his release, and always ready for the call, he passed away while being tenderly cared for by his beloved children.

JAMES MADISON USHER was born in Medford, Mass., Nov. 12, 1814, died at his home in West Medford, Mass., Dec. 31, 1891. He was ordained at Danvers, Mass., Dec. 1, 1839. For a year he supplied the pulpit at the West Parish, Gloucester, and was afterwards settled at East Lexington, Southbridge and Lynn. In 1850 he moved to West Medford, which was thereafter his home. In 1841 he became publisher of a Sunday-school paper and from then until 1861 he published Universalist books. In 1860 succeeding Rev. Dr. Thomas Whittemore as proprietor of The Trumpet. Later he published The Nation, a temperance paper, and was greatly interested in political affairs, representing his native town in the Massachusetts Legislature. Since 1880 he renewed his labors in the ministry, preaching regularly at Tyngsboro' and Dunstable, and often in the summer months at West Rumney, N. H. Quite recently he revised, bringing it down to date, Brook's History of Medford. His wife and children preceded him to the immortal life and the summons to himself found him ready and anxious to join them.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BOWLES, born in Portsmouth, N. H., March 4, 1824, died in Abington, Mass., Jan. 1, 1892. He fitted for the ministry under the instruction of Thomas J. Sawyer, D.D., at Clinton Liberal Institute in 1846-48, and was ordained at Salem, Mass., July, 1848. His pastoral settlements were subsequently at Southbridge, Natick, Melrose, Mass., Manchester, N. H., Worcester, Cambridgeport, Mass., Philadelphia, Pa., Osage, Iowa, San Francisco, Cal., Abington and South Weymouth, Mass. He also gave four years in the early part of his ministry to an experiment with others in establishing a socialistic community, and was the agent of Deau Academy for a year before settling at Abington. A man of great industry, he kept himself fully prepared for his pulpit work and was active in all the reforms which the Christian religion sanctions. He was a faithful and sympathetic pastor, a man of pure life and of strong and true friendships. Never strong in body he suffered much from physical prostration and the last year of his life with us was one of bodily weakness and wasting. He was strong in faith and unwavering in his confidence in the truth and sufficiency of that interpretation of the gospel which he preached so many years and so well.

LYMAN WHITE DAGGETT, born in North Attleborough, Mass., July 28, 1812, died at Attleborough Falls, Mass., Jan. 10, 1892. After receiving all possible aid from the schools in his native town, he fitted for college at Phillips Academy, Andover, but was prevented from entering college by pecuniary losses which fell upon his father. After teaching several years he entered the Divinity School of Harvard College and after finishing the course there was for some time prevented from entering active service by threatened decline from pulmonary weakness. He entered the ministry, however, in 1841, having the fellowship of the Old Colony Association, was ordained at Mattapoisett, Mass., Aug. 4, 1841, while pastor of the Universalist Church at Holliston, Mass. From Holliston he removed, in 1843, to Andover, and was subsequently at Woodstock and Hartland, Vt. From family considerations he returned to his birthplace in 1848, and for a few years thereafter supplied the pulpit at West Wrentham. Since 1853 his home has been at Attleborough Falls, where he filled many town offices, and was for three terms representative of the town in the Legislature. "He was ever a faithful, upright citizen, a useful, honest, godly man, a Christian in love with his church and deeply interested in all its affairs."

ALSON SCOTT, born at Halifax, Vt., Feb. 11, 1816, died at Plainfield, Vt., Feb. 8, 1892. He studied theology under the direction of Rev. Hosea F. Ballou, preaching while with Mr. Ballou, alternately at Readsboro', Vt., and Monroe, Mass. He was ordained at Williamsville, Vt., July 6, 1843. His pastorates have been at Colrain and Shelburne Falls, Mass.; Northfield, Barre and Roxbury, Vt.; Monroe, N. H., during his four years' residence there doing missionary work in Dalton, Littleton, Lisbon, Lyman, Warren and West Chesterfield; Jericho, Williamstown, Lynden, Glover and Marshfield, Vt.; North Orange and Prescott, Mass. In 1875 he returned to Vermont, since which time he preached only occasionally. He survived his wife, to whom he was married in June, 1842, nine years, making his home with one of his two daughters. The cause of his death was paralysis, and his departure was so sudden and quiet as to be hardly noticeable. A good man, he leaves a precious memory.

WILLARD SPAULDING, D.D., born in Lempster, N. H., Jan. 28, 1822, died at West Peabody, Mass., Feb. 11, 1892. He was ordained at Methuen, Mass., Nov. 22, 1845, where he was then settled. His subsequent pastorates were in the following order, as noted from time to time in the REGISTER: West Cambridge, Essex, Methuen, West Haverhill, Methuen, West Haverhill, Newburyport, Salem, Mass.; Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1872 he retired to his farm in West Peabody, after which he had no pastorates, but spent his Sundays quite regularly in pulpits in Maine and New Hampshire. In 1873 Buchtel College gave him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Spaulding was a man of intensely earnest convictions, and enthusiastic, perhaps sometimes rash, in their utterance, but always sincere and single in his purpose. His oratory was peculiar to himself and at times produced a wonderful effect on his hearers. Devoutly religious in his feelings he was especially in sympathy with the great questions of the hour and gave himself to an unreserved advocacy of what seemed to him to be just and right. He was companionable and affectionate, a true lover of his fellow-men.

ALBERT HARRINGTON MARSHALL was born at Lincklaen, Chenango County, N. Y., Nov. 13, 1824, and died in Madison, Madison County, N. Y., Feb. 16, 1892. Educated at the Cazenovia and De Ruyter Academies and at Clinton Liberal Institute, he began to preach at Clinton, N. Y., in 1859, and in 1861 settled over the parish at Madison, for several years giving a portion of his time to parishes at North Brookfield and Hubbardsville. He was ordained at Madison, June 8, 1865. Mr. Marshall was of an extremely quiet and retiring disposition, and, with the exception of a faithful performance of his duties as standing clerk of the Central Association for twenty-five years, was never identified with denominational work outside the lines of his parishes. He was a clear thinker and good sermonizer, and his character was unblemished. Greatly interested in education, he generously assisted by gifts of money several young men in completing their course of study. He did not accumulate large means, but out of his savings bequeathed $2,000 to the parish at Madison, and made its trustees the administrators of his estate.

ERI GARFIELD, born at Langdon, N. H., Feb. 3, 1805, died at Sanborn, Iowa, Feb. 29, 1892. He was ordained in 1831. His first settlement was at Bethel, Vt., and from thence, according to the REGISTER, he went to Randolph, in 1850, to North Enfield, N. H., in 1851, and to Jefferson, Wisconsin, in 1854. He also had pastorates at Columbus and Stoughton, in the latter State, ceasing from pastoral work a few years ago. A wife and daughters survive him. "For years the aged veteran had been patiently and lovingly waiting his Maker's call, and when it came he gladly obeyed, fully believing that he was simply stepping from this life into another and better one, where the loving Father of all provides a home for all his children, with endless possibilities for growth and development in knowledge and virtue."

AMORY BATTLES was born in Stoughton, Mass., June 1, 1823, and died at Bangor, Me., March 1, 1892. His theological training was at Harvard Divinity School. He was ordained in the Universalist Church at Bangor, where he had already been settled some months, Jan. 1, 1851. His pastorate at Bangor closed March 1, 1872, covering a period of twenty-one years. Although he never took pastoral charge of another church, and retained his residence in Bangor, he supplied "one year in West Newton, Mass., about four years in Orono, two years in Waterville and six years in Dexter." He was a scholar, an able and eloquent preacher, a reformer and philanthropist. Always fearless in utterance, but courteous and caudid, he was a power among his townsmen, a faithful soldier of the cross.

JAMES HENRY CHAPIN, PH.D., born at Leavenworth, Indiana, Dec. 31, 1832, died suddenly from heart disease in the City National Bank at South Norwalk, Connecticut, March 14, 1892. He was a graduate from Lombard University, class of 1857, and subsequently received the degrees of M.A. and Ph.D. from his Alma Mater. He was ordained at Pekin, Ill., June 3, 1859. His pastorates have been at Pekin and Springfield, Illinois and Meriden, Conn. During the late war he was in the service of the United States Sanitary Commission on the Pacific Coast, as the successor of the late Rev. T. Starr King, and at the close of the rebellion he was for several years Secretary of the New England Freedman's Aid Society. In 1868 he became the Financial Agent of the Massachusetts Convention and as such greatly aided in securing the quota for the Murray Fund of the General Convention, from that State. In 1871 he was elected to the Chair of Mineralogy and Geology in St. Lawrence University, which he held till his death, giving three months in alternate years, sometimes oftener, to his work in the College. He was greatly interested in these sciences and was an active Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and one of the founders of the Association of American Geologists. Always zealous for the welfare of the Universalist Church, he was many years President of the Connecticut Convention and active in the work of the parish at Meriden. A graceful and instructive writer, a learned and able preacher and an eminently good man, he faithfully discharged all duties and his death is sincerely lamented by his brethren.

JOHN FRANCIS GATES, born in Gallipolis, Ohio, Dec. 16, 1880, died at Perry, N. Y., April 23, 1892. Receiving an academic education at the Marietta (Ohio) Liberal Institute, he became deeply interested in religion under the ministry of Rev. Dr. G. S. Weaver, under whose advice, some years later, he entered the Theological School at Canton, N. Y., in 1867. In the interval he had been school-teacher and merchant in California, and in the spring of 1867 was admitted to practise at the bar in Ohio. The death of an only son, soon after, made him resolve to enter the ministry. He was ordained at McCónnellsville, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1869, and had pastorates at McCónnellsville and Le Roy, Ohio; Springfield, Vermont; and Bristol, Le Roy and Perry, N. Y. At the latter place he founded the Perry Weekly News, which he made a model country journal, conducting it with great ability. For six months he was an intense sufferer from cancer, but in all was patient and resigned. He was an able preacher, a faithful pastor and a devout Christian.

FRANCIS BENSON PECK, born in Oppenheim, Fulton Co., N. Y., May 14, 1827, died at Olcott, N. Y., April 29, 1892. A student in theology with Rev. Dr. T. J. Sawyer, at Clinton, N. Y., Mr. Peck was ordained at Braman's Corners, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1854. After four years' service at Braman's Corners, he located at East Hamilton, taking into his field of labor North Brookfield, Hubbardsville and Poolville. From thence he removed to Oxford, where for seven years he took the missionary field of the Chenango Association, in which he organized several new parishes. Subsequently he had pastorates in Cortland, Bristol, Clarendon, Olcott, supplying also at Cambria, all in the State of N. Y. A victim of disease for several years he persisted in his work until he fainted in the pulpit in January last, when he gave up and took to his bed from which he did not rise. He was a successful minister, was exceptionally gifted in prayer, and was greatly beloved wherever he made his home.

SUMNER ELY DARROW, born in Herkimer Co., N. Y., July 3, 1814, died in Freehold, Pa., May 15, 1892. Fellowshiped by the Chenango Association in 1849, he was never ordained, but had pastoral settlements in Friendsville, Orwell and Standing Stone, Pa., and Whitesville, N. Y., and was active several years in missionary labors.

He retired from the ministry some years ago, on account of ill health. He "was an honest, upright man and lived the religion he professed."

WILLIAM WILLIS HAYWARD, born in Hancock, N. H., died at Medfield, Mass., July 26, 1892. In early life he was a teacher in New Hampshire and Vermont. He was ordained at Enfield, N. H., June 18, 1859. His settlements were at Hancock and Keene, N. H., Paris Hill and Kendall's Mills, Me.; also Williamsville, Vt., So. Reading, now Wakefield, West Acton, Methuen, Plymouth and So. Framingham, Mass. After the opening of Tufts Divinity School he entered as a student, graduating with the degree of B.D. in 1871. During the war he served as Chaplain of the 18th Maine Regiment. In 1889 he became pastor of the Unitarian Church at Medfield, Mass. "He was a man of quick sympathies, a temperance worker and of large social connections."

WILLIAM T. DOWNER, of Wimbledon, England, a licentiate, died Aug. 17, 1892, aged about thirty. Rev. Dr. Demarest, in the Necrology appended to the Report of the Trustees of the General Convention, 1892, says of Mr. Downer: "He was born at Tenterden, England, but came to America two or three years before his entrance into the Canton Theological School, from which he graduated in 1889. He was licensed in 1888, and served for about a year as pastoral supply at Waterloo, P. Q. He then returned to his native land, hoping to achieve better results among his Unitarian countrymen than he had been able to do here. With a bright mind and endearing qualities, his failure was doubtless owing to his infirm health. He died of consumption, leaving a wife and child."

THOMAS B. LUSTER, born April 20, 1864, died in Whitesville, Ind., Aug. 31, 1892. He was educated for the law, but before fully entering upon his profession was convinced that the Christian ministry opened a wider and nobler field of usefulness, and he at once took up his new work. He was pastor at Lafayette, Ind., nearly four years, when the ravages of disease forced him to retire. "He died firm in the faith he so loved to impress upon others."

GRANVILLE WALLINGFORD JENKINS, born in Boston, Mass., Aug. 4, 1851, died at Norwich, Conn., Oct. 16, 1892. A carpenter by trade, he fitted himself to enter Tufts Divinity School when in his twenty-third year and took the full four years' course. He was ordained at Orleans, Mass., Aug. 21, 1878, and remained pastor of the church there two and a half years. Pastorates at St. Johnsbury, Vt., Belfast, Me., and Norwich, Conn., followed. "Always broad-minded, large-hearted and liberal to a fault, he won innumerable friends, who always regarded him as the synonym of integrity and uprightness. The church, in his death, loses an excellent preacher and a hard worker, and the members a sympathetic friend. His place will be hard to fill."

EBEN FRANCIS, born in Boston, Mass., May 28, 1819, died in Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 31, 1892. He studied for the ministry under the direction of Rev. Dr. Hosea Ballou 2d, was ordained at Dover, N. H., Oct. 13, 1841, and had settlements at Dover, Chelsea, Mass., Utica and Perry, N. Y., Newark, N. J., Iowa City, Iowa, Stamford, Conn., and last at Huntington, N. Y. In all these places his success was marked, noticeably so in Utica, where, on account of previous failure, the people were scattered and greatly discouraged. Mr. Francis, by untiring industry and perseverance against many obstacles, gathered a large congregation, which developed into and still remains one of our strongest and most influential churches. Always greatly interested in Sunday-school work, he was a regular contributor, during the ten or more years of its existence, to the "Sabbath-School Contributor," edited by the late John G. Adams, D.D., and enriched by the productions of those who in that day (1839 to 1850) were most interested in establishing such schools in our parishes. Mr. Francis was a faithful pastor, an earnest preacher, a strong friend, gentle, genial and winning in his ways, and of unsullied purity of life. In 1867 he withdrew from active ministerial life and returned to the home of his aged parents, who were sinking into the decline of life, and to whom, while they remained on earth, he devoted himself with loving care. A good man and true, his memory is gratefully enshrined in many hearts, and his Christian character is a priceless legacy to his children.

GEORGE HENRY HARRIS, born in Minersville, Schuylkill Co., Pa., July 26, 1870, died at North Orange, Mass., Nov. 12, 1892. Mr. Harris was of Welsh parentage and early in life took up his father's occupation and became a coal miner. He was early attracted to the Dunkards and became a member of one of their churches. Later he became a Universalist and with slender preparation entered the Canton Theological School, from which he graduated in June, 1891. Rev. Dr. Atwood says of his student days: "He read widely beyond the topics of the prescribed course, and along with so much discursive study it was a continual surprise how accurate his knowledge was. He wrote with ease and a good degree of elegance, his speech was fervid, poetic and eloquent, and his capacity of thought equal to the demands of the severest studies." He was ordained at North Orange, Oct. 27, 1892, and was successful as preacher and pastor. He was subject, however, to spells of great depression and on such an occasion, at the last, reason reeled from its throne and he ended his mortal career.

While the following pages are not as accurate as they ought to be nor as they would have been if repeated calls for information had been heeded by those who could have given it, there is marked improvement in responses over former years, but for want of general response it is very certain that errors of statement as to the condition of all parish interests are repeated, greatly to our detriment, year after year. It is hoped that we make some advance each year towards accuracy, and it is believed that by persistent effort we may sometime succeed in obtaining reports from all.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

"The Universalist General Convention," having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session—1895—will be held in Meriden, Conn., on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, Rev. J. K. Mason. The Convention is composed of the Presidents (or in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention, as reported at the Session in Washington, D. C., in October, 1893, aggregate $262,259.16, and are distributed as follows:—

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $126,319.53. The income of this fund is used "in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause."

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $45,063.40, and the income is appropriated to loans to new students

III. Church Extension Fund. Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $11,330.10.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $3,000, "to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination," except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $12,542.96.

V. Ada Tibbetts Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbetts of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., moderately valued at $60 per acre, subject to a lien of $4,100, on condition that he is to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income shall be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He has since conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill., valued at $3,600, subject to a lien of $2,000. The property is under contracts of sale, and its value over and above the liens is $9,280.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $14,000.

VIII. William H. Ryder Fund. $25,000. The income only to be used, "at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for the education of young persons for the ministry of the Universalist Church." But the Board may, in a certain contingency, apply a portion of such income "to the credit of any Missionary or Church Extension Fund" under their control and direction.

IX. Draper Fund. The late Mr. Eben D. Draper of Boston, Mass., bequeathed to the General Convention the sum of $2,000, to be expended for missionary purposes in the Western States. Present amount of the fund, $1,200.

X. The "T" Fund. A lady of New York, who desires that her name shall not at present be published, has paid $7,510 to the Convention as the beginning of a fund, the income of which shall be paid to her during her natural life, and thereafter shall be added to the Theological Scholarship Fund.

XI. Henry P. Porter Fund. $1,000.

XII. Guaranty Fund. $20.25.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1891-92 was $7,603.31. The appropriations for the Convention year 1893-94 are whatever income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed "to provide for two or more Universalist Church Conferences, to be held at central locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education."

A mission to Japan was established in 1890, the sum of $62,000, one fifth payable annually, having been subscribed. Details in regard to this mission are given on page 61.

Dating from 1875 the Association has, during a large portion of the time, supported a missionary in Scotland. Rev. Marion Crosley, J. W. Hanson, D.D., Rev. Caroline A. Soule and Rev. Charles A. C. Garst—the latter still in the field—have been so employed. It also shares with the General Convention in sustaining a missionary in Texas. It has published and distributed editions of sixty-eight valuable tracts, aggregating 6,000,000 pages.

The Association meets at the time and place of the session of the General Convention, and special meetings are held during the year in connection with the session of the State Conventions where its work is organized. It is supported by annual, life and patron memberships, and by voluntary contributions. Annual memberships, $1; life memberships, $25; patron, $100. ## STATISTICS.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive; || that the parish is not in formal fellowship. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedication is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

TUFTS DIVINITY SCHOOL.

Faculty.—E. H. Capen, D.D., President; T. J. Sawyer, D.D., Packard Professor of Christian Theology, Emeritus; C. H. Leonard, D.D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology and Dean of the Divinity School; W. G. Tousey, A.M., D.B., Professor of Psychology and Natural Theology; Rev. G. T. Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the

introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the college to an intellectual centre like Boston affords,—libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D.B. is conferred upon A.B.s who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments. To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailing supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected ten years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76x40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily calisthenics. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages of the highest order at the least cost to students. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the Department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German and French. Piano music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodell, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. His sister, Miss Hanna Bodell, whose training has been conducted by eminent European masters, came to this country to accept the position of piano assistant and teacher of pipe organ, and entered upon her duties, September, 1890. The second piano assistant is Miss A. Lenora Ballou, one of Prof. Bodell's graduates and a teacher of experience. Miss Katharine A. Crawford, B. M., is at the head of the Vocal School. The number of pupils studying music at the Institute last year was over one hundred. The course in Elocution is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this branch. The Art department is admirably equipped with casts, copies, etc.; the instruction is thorough. The studio consists of a suite of four rooms. The course in the Porter School of Business Training is one of the best of the kind offered anywhere. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years; elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue. The boys' department is on a military basis. The commandant is an officer of the United States Army. Muskets, cannon and ammunition are supplied by the War Department. The new brick armory, with clear floor space 150x80 feet, is one of the largest school armories in the United States.

Expense, for board, tuition, church sitting, furnished room and washing, from $220 to $255 per year. Reduced rates to children of clergymen. The attendance during the year ending June, 1893, was 243.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of study are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending college, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is well conducted and the method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is also taught by a teacher of reputation and experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of nineteen hundred volumes.

A new gymnasium erected and equipped by the alumni and friends gives ample opportunity for physical development. Care will be taken to have proper physical examination, and exercise will be in charge of competent instructors.

Fund.—The permanent fund amounts to about $24,000, and will be materially increased by the bequests of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre, and Mrs. Coburn of Chelsea.

Expenses—Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $10 per term. Ten free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements.

NECROLOGY.

The deaths of the following-named preachers, or former preachers in the Universalist Church, eleven in all, have occurred since the publication of the REGISTER for 1893.

ALFRED BARNES, born in Dudley, Mass., April 20, 1816, died in Junction City, Kan., Dec. 10, 1892. An attendant in early manhood on the Ministry of Rev. John Boyden, he was a student in theology with Rev. Abel C. Thomas, in 1841-2. His first settlement was in 1843 at Wrentham, Mass., where he was probably ordained. A year later he took charge of the Church in Oxford, Mass. Never of robust health he was compelled to give up his work at Oxford in 1847, and for the next twenty years was in secular business, mostly in Peoria, Ill. After this he was in the Ministry again at Earlville, Ill., and under the auspices of the General Convention labored for a time in Lawrence, Kan. In 1876 he became pastor at Junction City, Kan., where he remained until his death, zealous, useful and greatly beloved. A man of sound mind and judgment, superior administrative abilities, he gave "all the energy his feeble physical powers permitted, in the interest of the Church he served and in the cause of his Master. . . Rarely has a Christian pastor laid his burden down more revered and beloved."

ALBION PARIS FOGG was born in 1824, and died at Morrill, Me., January 19, 1892. He entered the Universalist Ministry in 1862, and from thence till 1879 was preaching in Monroe, Me., his next and last settlement was from 1880 to 1883, in Albion, in the same State. Probably at this time failing health compelled the close of his pulpit labors, for he was an invalid many years. He died a firm believer in the faith he had preached so many years.

JUDSON CLEVELAND CRAWFORD, born in Tompkins Co., N. Y., April 26, 1823, died in Augusta, Wis., January 26, 1893. About 1850 he began preaching in Berlin and Eureka, Wis., and was ordained in that State in 1852. Previous to this time he had been a teacher. He subsequently had pastoral settlements at Neenah and Menasha, Oshkosh, Stoughton, Marshall and Reidsburg, Wis., and itinerated extensively in that State. As a controversialist he was well equipped for the work which the times and the localities demanded. In later years he turned his attention to the profession of the law, but without losing his interest in or his zeal for the cause of religion. He was a sincere and earnest Christian.

NATHAN REED WRIGHT, born in Washington, N. H., February 8, 1810, died in Lynn, Mass., March 1, 1893. He was fellowshipped by the New Hampshire Convention, June 1, 1837, and ordained at Lempster, in that State, October 4, 1838. The REGISTER shows his residences after entering the Ministry to have been successively in Dunbarton, Hookset, and Washington, N. H., Reading, Mass., Paper Mill Village and West Swanzey, N. H., Franklin, Lynn, West Amesbury, Woburn and Lynn, Mass. His last residence in Lynn began in 1883 and continued to the close of his eventful and conspicuously useful life. A consecrated minister of the grace of God, saintly in spirit and of pure life, he was always an acceptable preacher and successful pastor. Among the sick and bereaved he was pre-eminently "a son of consolation."

LEWIS LLEWELLYN BRIGGS was born in Providence, R. I., in 1839, and died in Lynn, Mass., March 31, 1893. He was educated for the Ministry at the Canton Theological School, in the second class, graduating therefrom, and was ordained at Mohawk, N. Y., where he had his first settlement in 1862. Subsequent pastorates were at Philadelphia, Pa., Boston, Mass., and Auburn, N. Y. At the close of his pastorate in Auburn he withdrew from the fellowship of the Universalist Church, and became connected with the Congregationalists but without any change of faith in regard to human destiny, where he remained until 1885, when he returned to our communion and took a pastorate at Brockton, Mass. Two years later he became pastor of the Second Church in Lynn, where he remained until his death. He was a man of great industry, strong as a sermonizer, a faithful pastor, companionable, conscientious in all his ways and eminently spiritual in his thoughts and life.

JOHN HARNDEN GREENE, born in Deerfield, N. H., Aug. 19, 1815, died at Dorchester, Mass., May 2, 1893. He was in secular business several years in early life, and was ordained at Manchester, N. H., June 21, 1866. His first pastorate was at Wentworth, in that State, and his second and last at Williamstown, Vt., although he continued to preach, as opportunity offered, some ten years longer, or until 1880, when ill health compelled his retirement from active service. His mind shared to some extent in the weakened condition of his body, but never to the diminishing of his interest in the Church and its work in all its branches.

JOSEPH BARTLETT MORSE, born at North Baverhill, N. H., May 21, 1814, died at Hanover, N. H., June 26, 1893. A graduate of Dartmouth College, he prepared for the Ministry under the instruction of the late Benjamin Whittemore, D. D., was fellowshipped by the Boston Association Nov. 3, 1835, and was ordained at Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 30, 1836. His first settlement was at New-

Rowley, now Georgetown, Mass., and his subsequent pastorates were at Oxford, N. H., and Strafford, Vt. For sixteen years he was Master of the Harvard Grammar School, in Charlestown, Mass., standing high in the company of instructors. Loss of sight compelled his retiring from the School, and he located on a farm in the town of Hanover, N. H. He did not wholly abandon the clerical profession, but while teaching and even after retiring to his farm, he preached as opportunity offered. When too blind to read the Scriptures and hymns, he, with the assistance of his wife, committed them to memory and repeated them in the pulpit. He was an intelligent, scholarly, faithful Christian man and an acceptable and profitable preacher.

SILAS MILTON SIMONS, born in Lexington County, S. C., July 6, 1817, died at Ramsey, Ark., July 3, 1893. Early interested in religion he became a member of the Baptist Church in his native county, and was ordained in that communion in 1843. By diligent study of the Scriptures he became convinced that they taught the final salvation of all men, and he was fellowshipped by the Universalist Convention of South Carolina in 1846. Until the breaking out of the rebellion he itinerated through S. C. Being zealously patriotic and loyal he was opposed to secession and was made to feel the keen displeasure of former friends who espoused the cause of the Confederacy. His property was swallowed up during the war, and sickness and age pressed heavily on him in his later days. "He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and much people were added to the Lord" by his ministrations of the word.

WILLIAM RILEY FRENCH, D. D., born June 8, 1814, in Turner, Me., died in Turner, August 7, 1893. After learning the trade of cabinet maker, he fitted himself for and entered Waterville College, which on account of failing health, he was obliged to leave at the end of the second year. Invigorated by rest he prepared for the Ministry under the direction of the late Rev. Zenas Thompson, with whom he remained till his ordination at Fryeburg, his first pastoral settlement, in 1841. His next settlement was at Auburn, then at North Auburn, then in his native town, where, with the exception of five years at Brunswick and a pastorate at Bowdoinham, he passed the remainder of his days. Always interested in education he was for many years Superintendent of Public Schools. In recognition of his scholarship and service in the Church, Tufts College conferred upon him, in 1885, the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was greatly interested in the young, especially those who were ambitious to learn, and aided such in many ways. A student of the Bible his pen was almost constantly in service in the interpretation and enforcing of its teachings. "He was a pure and simple man, upright and thoroughly unselfish." Shortly before his death, he said, between paroxysms of pain: "I think the end is near. I have tried to live an upright life and to do the best I knew, and so all is peace."

HIRAM PRATT OSGOOD was born in Eden, (now Madison), N. H., Dec. 15, 1823, and died in Haverhill, Mass., Sept. 17, 1893. He studied for the Ministry under the direction of the late Rev. George Bates, and was ordained in 1849. He had pastoral settlements in New Gloucester, Addison, Foxcroft, Me., Cuttingsville, Vt., Granby, Conn., and Chicopee, Mass. On account of ill-health he retired from active service in 1885. He maintained "an honorable record as a Christian minister."

WEBSTER BETTES RANDOLPH, born in Randolph, Vt., Aug. 22, 1816, died at Clinton, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1893. He was ordained in 1839, probably at West Boylston, Mass., where he was then preaching. His subsequent pastorates were in Alstead, N. H., Woburn, Mass., Newark, Cortland, Oswego, Ridgeway, and North Bloomfield, N. Y., and Tidioute, Pa. "For the last three years he had been retired. His sickness was of nine weeks' duration, though he had long been feeble." He was a good preacher and a wise and faithful pastor.

UNIVERSALIST REGISTER, 1895.

It is certain that in the REGISTER for 1895 we come nearer to accuracy in our Statistics than we have ever done before, but we are still far from what ought to be and would be, if our ministers would respond to the request annually sent to them, due attention to which would be no perceptible drain on their time.

Irregularity in the manner of counting "Families in the Parish," sets some parishes at a disadvantage as compared with others. Some ministers reckon only those who contribute to the financial support of the parish; others include all such, and in addition all who are regular attendants on Sunday services, while others include also all who are represented by their children in the Sunday School. A uniform rule is greatly to be desired, and it is hoped that before the Statistics for 1896 are sought, something of the kind may be devised and incorporated in the blank that will be sent out.

Acknowledgment is here made of obligation to many who have, by response to appeals and by suggestions, aided the effort to make our Year Book accurate and reliable.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

"The Universalist General Convention," having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organization of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, meets biennially. The next session—1895—will be held in Meriden, Conn., on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, J. K. Mason, D.D. The convention is composed of the Presidents (or in their absence, the Vice-Presidents) and Secretaries of the State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to one clerical and two lay delegates, and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose one delegate, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention, and if there be but one parish so situated, it is entitled to one delegate. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees. The funds of the Convention as reported at the District Conferences in October, 1894, aggregate $263,588.87 and are distributed as follows:—

I. The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, $126,294.53. The income of this fund is used "in the aid of theological students, the distribution of Universalist literature, church extension and the missionary cause."

II. The Theological Scholarship Fund. This fund is created by the repayment of loans made to theological students. It now amounts to $46,720.90, and the income is appropriated to loans to new students.

III. Church Extension Fund. Started in 1884 on the modest foundation of $210, this fund, the income of which is to be devoted as its name indicates, now amounts to $11,539.45.

IV. Gunn Ministerial Relief Fund. The late John G. Gunn of New York bequeathed to the Convention the sum of $8,000, "to create a fund for the relief, support and maintenance of needy clergymen, their widows and families, of the Universalist denomination," except those in fellowship through the New York State Convention, which had an endowment for that purpose. The fund now amounts to $12,729.54.

V. Ada Tibbetts Memorial Fund. During the year 1886 the Rev. A. Tibbetts of Urbana, Ill., one of the early graduates of the Canton Theological School, conveyed to the Convention, in fee simple, 200 acres of farm land in Champaign County, Ill., on condition that he was to have the use, occupancy and income of the property during his natural life; and that perpetually thereafter one-tenth of the income should be added annually to the principal of the fund, the remaining nine-tenths to be applied, at the discretion of the Trustees, to the purposes of the Convention. He afterward conveyed to the Convention a farm in Ford County, Ill. The property has been sold, and the Fund amounts to $9,280.

VI. Waverly (Iowa) Fund. $800.

VII. G. L. Demarest Reserve Fund. $14,000.

VIII. William H. Ryder Fund. $25,000. The income only to be used "at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, for the education of young persons for the ministry of the Universalist Church." But the Board may, in a certain contingency, apply a portion of such income "to the credit of any Missionary or Church Extension Fund" under their control and direction.

IX. The "T" Fund. A lady of New York, who desires that her name shall not at present be published, has paid $3,060.00 to the Convention as the beginning of a fund the income of which shall be paid to her during her natural life, and thereafter shall be added to the Theological Scholarship Fund.

X. Henry P. Porter Fund. $1,000.

XI. Guaranty Fund. $291.53.

The aggregate increase of the Convention funds during the Convention year 1893-'94 was $1,329.53. The appropriations for the Convention year 1894-'95 are whatever income from any source may be deemed best by the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees have been authorized and directed "to provide for two or more Universalist Church Conferences, to be held at central locations, in the years intervening between the regular sessions of the Convention, not for ecclesiastical, legislative or financial work, but for the purpose of considering important questions relating to religion, morals and education." Three such Conferences were held Oct. 23-25, 1894, at Lowell, Mass., Baltimore, Md., and Chicago, Ill.

The officers of the Convention are:—

President—Hon. Henry B. Metcalf, Pawtucket, R. I.

STATISTICS.

[The location of parishes according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive; (¶) that the parish is not in formal fellowship. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. The date of organization both of Churches and Sunday-schools is indicated in separate columns, with the membership of each organization. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedication is given when known. Un. denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations br. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure; prop. shows that the parish holds other property besides a church edifice. Under the head of "Values" appears the amount of all property after deducting indebtedness. In the column designated "Preachers" the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship.]

The statistics are taken from reports direct from the pastors or preachers, and from official reports of State Convention secretaries, where such have been received. In the absence of information of recent date from either of the above sources, changes are noted as indicated in the denominational papers; and in the absence of any recent information, the figures of last year are used.

TUFTS DIVINITY SCHOOL.

Faculty.—E. H. Capen, D.D., President; T. J. Sawyer, D.D., Packard Professor of Christian Theology, Emeritus; C. H. Leonard, D.D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology and Dean of the Divinity School; W. G. Tousey, A.M., D.B., Professor of Psychology and Natural Theology; Rev. G. T. Woodbridge, A.M., Professor of Applied Christianity; D. L. Maulaby, A.M., Professor of Oratory; Henry I. Cushman, D.D., C. W. Biddle, D.D., Professor D. G. Lyon, Lecturers.

Candidates must bring testimonials as to character, and avow their purpose to devote their lives to the Christian ministry. Bachelors of Arts are admitted without examination. Other candidates are examined in Greek, and in the other branches usually taught in the best high schools and academies. The full collegiate course, as preliminary, is recommended to those who contemplate theological studies; but, since the circumstances of many earnest and capable men forbid so extensive preparation, a four years' theological course has been provided. This course permits the introduction of branches not strictly professional, and yet of a fundamental character, and of the highest disciplinary value. It is the policy of the school to encourage the judicious use of the important facilities which the proximity of the college to an intellectual centre like Boston affords,—libraries, cabinets, lectures, the teachings and methods of the most noted preachers of New England.

The degree of D. B. is conferred upon A. B's who take the full course of three years, and upon others who make equivalent attainments. To others taking the four years' course a suitable certificate is given.

The necessary expenses will not exceed $200 a year. Tuition, room-rent, use of furniture, free. Students may add to their resources by preaching during the year and a half previous to graduation. The Universalist General Convention aids students by a system of loans.

LOMBARD UNIVERSITY.

Lombard University is located in Galesburg, Illinois. She received her charter February 15, 1851, and consequently is the oldest college in the denomination. Her aim is thoroughness. She does not believe in the many captivating influences now prevalent in some colleges, which draw away students from legitimate study.

The College of Liberal Arts has adopted the Elective System of study. Students may elect any study they are qualified to pursue. They are not allowed to take advanced courses before preliminary courses have been taken.

Elective studies are classed as courses or half courses, according to the estimated amount of work in each and its value in fulfilling the requirements for graduation. A course, in any study, consists of five hours of recitation or lectures per week for one term. Certain minor studies are reckoned as half courses.

Entrance to College requires eighteen courses. The terms of graduation demand thirty-eight more. In no case will degrees be conferred before the thirty-eight courses have been completed. All degrees will be conferred at the Annual Commencement on the first Thursday in June, and at no other time. After the completion of the thirty-eight courses, the Baccalaureate Degree will be conferred.

Students not candidates for a degree may select such studies as they are qualified to take, and a Certificate of Standing will be given them on leaving college.

The advantages of the Elective System over the old college curriculum are many. It enables the student to select such studies as he is best fitted to take. It allows him to select those branches which are suited to his habits of thought and bent of mind. It breaks up the monotony and meaningless routine of college study and college life. It affords every opportunity for a thorough practical education.

Both sexes are admitted alike to all classes and courses of study. The University building, with its spacious rooms for libraries, apparatus, recitations, etc., is well fitted for college purposes. There are about six thousand volumes in the library, besides an extensive mineralogical cabinet, including a rare collection of shells and corals, a valuable philosophical and chemical apparatus, and a fund of about $200,000, exclusive of buildings and grounds.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution, founded at Clinton, N. Y., in 1831, was moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., in 1879, and came into the possession of the buildings and grounds formerly known as the Fort Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute. The present buildings are practically new, and fitted with all modern conveniences. They are warmed by steam and lighted by gas, and afford excellent accommodations for 150 boarding pupils. The Institute spares its lady pupils the necessity of climbing stairs; a hydraulic elevator for their exclusive use was provided in August, 1888, at an expense of nearly $2,500.

Competent judges have pronounced the buildings the finest of their kind in the State. Recent improvements include the Porter business college room, fitted up at an expense of $1,000; the introduction of entirely new plumbing, costing over $1,200, and connection with the village water works, by which an unfailing supply of pure water is insured. The business college has a complete equipment of desks, offices, etc. The boys' gymnasium, erected ten years ago, is a two-story brick structure, 76 x 40 feet. Besides having four bowling-alleys, it is well supplied with the usual apparatus. The ladies' gymnasium is a room 56 feet long, opening from the chapel. The young ladies have daily calisthenics. The Institute is an admirably equipped school for young men and women. It aims to furnish advantages of the highest order at the least cost to students. All the departments of academic training, as of the Classics, Sciences and Mathematics, are in the charge of instructors whose training and experience, as well as ability, qualify them for their work.

In the Department of Modern Languages students may acquire a speaking mastery of German and French. Piano music is in the charge of Prof. Carl Bodell, a graduate, class of 1870, of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. The second piano assistant is Miss A. Lenora Ballou, one of Prof. Bodell's graduates and teacher of experience. Miss Ida Canfield, is at the head of the Vocal School. The number of pupils studying music at the Institute last year was over one hundred. The course in Elocution is unreservedly recommended to those who desire to make a specialty of this branch. The Art department is admirably equipped with casts, copies, etc.; the instruction is thorough. The studio consists of a suite of four rooms. The course in the Porter School of Business Training is one of the best of the kind offered anywhere. Common English receives particular attention. Students are prepared for any College. Excellent courses in Literature, Rhetoric and History. Working Laboratory for students in Chemistry and Physics.

Besides a preparatory year in common English, the school provides nine regular courses, viz.: The collegiate, four years; the academic, three years; the college preparatory, three years; the literary and musical, three years; the business, length six months at least; piano, three years; vocal, three years; art, three years; elocution, two years. These will be found outlined in the school catalogue. The boys' department is on a military basis. The commandant is an officer of the United States Army. Muskets, cannon and ammunition are supplied by the War Department. The new brick armory, with clear floor space 150x80 feet, is one of the largest school armories in the United States.

Expense, for board, tuition, church sitting, furnished room and washing, from $270 to $300. Reduced rates to children of clergymen. The attendance during the year ending June, 1894, was 189.

The School is located in one of the most delightful and healthful portions of the Mohawk Valley, about midway between Albany and Utica, on the New York Central and West Shore Railroads. Twelve passenger trains from the West and twelve from the East stop at Fort Plain daily.

Students under thirteen years of age are not admitted.

Faculty. — Myron J. Michael, President; Jane S. Higham, Lady Principal. Nineteen competent instructors are employed in the various departments appertaining to a first-class academic institution.

The value of the buildings, grounds and equipment is at least $125,000. The other property consists of the general endowment of $25,000, and the John Westover Scholarship Fund of $10,000. The income of the Scholarship Fund is used (1) for the benefit of students fitting for the Theological School at Canton, N. Y., and pursuing college preparatory studies; and (2) for the benefit of students of limited means who are not preparing for the ministry, but whose parents are Universalists.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., six miles from Montpelier, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of study are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the sciences, with at least two years spent on languages. By omitting the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The collegiate course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending college, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature, rhetoric and history.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as home-like as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is well conducted and the method of daily lessons results in assured progress. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is also taught by a teacher of reputation and experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscope, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of nineteen hundred volumes.

A new gymnasium erected and equipped by the alumni and friends gives ample opportunity for physical development. Care will be taken to have proper physical examination, and exercise will be in charge of competent instructors.

Fund.—The permanent fund amounts to about $24,000, and will be materially increased by the bequests of the late Mrs. Almira Smith of Barre, and other gifts subject to life interest.

Expenses.—Board, $3.50 per week, including room-rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition averages about $10 per term. Ten free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements. School charges for the year amount to about $175.

NECROLOGY.

The deaths of the following-named preachers, fourteen in all, have occurred since the publication of the REGISTER for 1894.

GEORGE PROCTOR, born in Chelmsford, Mass., Sept. 5, 1815, died in Somerville, Mass., Nov. 23, 1893. He studied for the ministry with Rev. R. S. Pope, of Hyannis, and was ordained in 1840. His pastoral settlements were at Sterling, Billerica, Dover, Oxford, Ashland, Chatham, and Lanesville, Mass. For the last twenty-five years he suffered from a complication of physical troubles, which compelled him to retire from the ministry while in a successful pastorate at Lanesville, in 1885. Mr. Proctor was a man of solid attainments, and was wholly consecrated to his work. Though a great sufferer for many years, he was always patient and uncomplaining. "His life was that of a practical Christian; upright, kindly, trustful, worthy, patient, faithful, sincere.

JOHN HENRY STEWART, born in Warren, Herkimer Co., N. Y., died in Bridgewater, N. Y., Dec. 22, 1893. Mr. Stewart entered the ministry in 1842, and was ordained a year later. His half-century in the ministry began in Central, N. Y., extended in a few years to Watertown and vicinity, where it continued a long time, and closed near its place of beginning. He was fortunate in the days of preparation for his life-work, to have had, in the absence of training in theological schools, great help in his intimate companionship with Rev. Messrs. E. M. Woolley, S. R. Smith, A. B. Grosh, D. Skinner, and Pitt Morse, men who appreciated his abilities and admired his consistent Christian character. He was an instructive preacher, a minister of consolation to the sick and bereaved, and a grand example to all of the pure and upright life which the gospel enjoins. A man of intense convictions, of great and pronounced hatred of all shams, an ardent lover of his church and jealous for its good name, he was, withal, companionable, genial, and fraternal. His home was always the abode of love and peace, and its doors ever swung open to welcome his brethren who there found refreshment and encouragement for their work. The writer has many happy memories of its restfulness and comforts.

BRITTON CONINE, born in 1811, died at Camp Hill, Ala., Dec. 30, 1893. A Methodist preacher for nearly 40 years, about 16 years ago he embraced the Universalist faith. A very devout man, "full of the Holy Spirit and of faith," he enjoyed the confidence and respect of people of all creeds. The pains of sickness and the infirmities of age made him long for the release which only death could bring.

JOHN JENKINS AUSTIN, born Nov. 22, 1819, died at Riverside, Cal., Jan. 16, 1894, entered the ministry at an early age, receiving ordination in 1845. About one-half of his fifty years ministry was spent with parishes in Western N. Y. Subsequent pastorates were had in Muncie, Ind., Morrison, Ill., and Waterloo, Iowa. "His record in the ministry is one of great usefulness and fidelity to our cause, and he leaves many friends in these places who will sincerely mourn his departure." With health impaired, he sought the Pacific coast, and some six or eight years ago, settled down to rest under "his own vine and fig-tree" in Diamond Valley, near San Jacinto. His death, which he joyfully anticipated and for which he was amply prepared, took place at the residence of his daughter, at Riverside, Cal.

GEORGE SMITH GUERNSEY, was born in Westminster, Vt., Dec. 30, 1818, and died at Rochester, Vt., March 19, 1894. Educated at Burr Seminary, Manchester, Vt., and at the Liberal Institute at Lebanon, N. H., in both of which he afterwards taught, as also in public and select schools, he entered the ministry in 1843, and was ordained at Rochester, Vt., March 6, 1844. He there began a pastorate lasting 16 years. The whole fifty years of his ministry were spent in his native State. "The Bible was his chart and compass. He made that book his study through all his life. The old, old story was ever new to him. It filled his soul. He preached it with power and telling effect." "He died as he had lived, with those he loved, at peace with the world and with God."

ISAAC CASE KNOWLTON, D.D., born at Liberty, Me., Sept. 6, 1819, died at his home in West Acton, Mass., March 23, 1894. He learned the cooper's trade, and while at work at it he studied and fitted himself for the ministry, which he entered in June, 1842, and was ordained in 1845. His first pastorate was at Durham, Me. Subsequent settlements at Auburn, Hampden, Oldtown, Me.; Keene, N. H.; South Boston, New Bedford, Mass.; Calais, Me.; South and West Acton, Mass. Having closed fifty years of work as a clergyman, in June, 1892, he formally retired. In recognition of his abilities and industry as a student in many branches of learning, Tufts College conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, in 1889. Dr. Knowlton was a man of decidedly marked characteristics, original in thought and utterance, sometimes very quaint in the latter. In everything he was profoundly sincere and his praise is in all the churches as a devout Christian, "a very able preacher, a strong magnetic speaker, an exceptionally able maker of sermons and a true pastor."

GIDEON SETH ABBOTT, born in the State of N. Y., in 1816, died at San Jose, Cal., May 10, 1894. He was ordained at Oxford, N. Y., in 1842, and had settlements at Oxford, Dexter, Cowlesville, Hopkinton, N. Y.; So. Woodstock, Vt.; Willoughby and La Grange, Ohio. He virtually retired from the ministry in 1872, after which time he resided in Akron, Ohio, for four years, then in Aurora, the same State, seven years, when he returned to Akron which continued to be his home until his death, which occurred while on a visit to his daughter. His pastor records of him that, "He was a man of deep and fervent piety; and his old age was made very beautiful by his simple, child-like and absolute trust in the goodness of God."

RICHARD PETERS REYNER, born at Tylersburg, Clarion Co., Pa., Feb. 21, 1826, died at La Plata, Mo., May 12, 1894. Although converted from Calvinism to Universalism in early manhood by reading the "Magazine and Advocate," edited by the late Dolphus Skinner, D.D., Mr. Reyner did not enter the ministry until 1872, when he was licensed by the Missouri Convention. He was ordained, at Brookfield, Mo., Sept. 28, 1873. Although residing on his farm throughout his ministerial life, he did extensive missionary work in the vast region of north eastern Mo. "His work was done with great earnestness and consecration. His assistance in building the church in La Plata, Mo., closed his active work in the Master's vineyard. His death was calm and peaceful, a fitting end to his noble life."

WILLIAM MCNEAL, born in Scotland, about 1813, died at his home in Randolph, Wis., August 1, 1894. When very young started for this country with his parents, "but was left an orphan in mid-ocean." His early years were a struggle with poverty and many disadvantages. About 1847 he became a member of Rev. Dr. Sawyer's Theological Class, at Clinton Liberal Institute, where he remained until 1849, when he began to preach at Wolcott, N. Y., where he was ordained in 1851. His subsequent pastorates were at Chaumont, Alexander, Churchville, N. Y., Barton, Watertown, Oakkosh, Springvale, Markesan, Springvale and Waupun, Wis. In 1879 he retired to his farm in Randolph, Wis., and had no pastoral charge thereafter, although he continued to preach occasionally. He was a man of singularly marked peculiarities as a writer and preacher; honest and conscientious in all his intercourse with others.

WILLIAM HOOPEE, born at Marblehead, Mass., Dec. 25, 1809, died at West Acton, Mass., Aug. 16, 1884. In early life he followed the sea. His name is first borne in the REGISTER in 1840, at which time he was unordained and residing in his native town. His ordination took place before the issue of the Year Book for 1841. His first settlement was at Amherst, N. H., afterwards at Weare, N. H., Tynghboro, Mass.; Halifax, N. S.; Rockport, Provincetown, Osterville, North Orange, Chatham, Annisquam, Mass.; Marlow, N. H.; Windsor, Vt.; Waterloo, P. Q., Can.; West Haverhill, Mass. Since 1887 he has made his home at West Acton. He was a painstaking sermonizer, a faithful preacher, good pastor, and a man of irreproachable character. Death came to him suddenly, but he had long anticipated and desired it.

WILLIAM L. SWAN, a native of Toronto, Can., aged 45 years, died at San Francisco, Aug. 17, 1894. "He was formerly a Methodist minister, but was received into Universalist fellowship last year.

Mr. Swan had preached to good acceptance in San Francisco and Oakland, and was chosen as stated supply of the missionary movement in the former city, but was unable to discharge his duties on account of feeble health. Good service was expected of him in our ministry had his health permitted."

TOWNSEND PAOLI ABELL, died at Flovilla, Ga., Sept. 4, 1894, aged about 85 years. Mr. Abell was born in Middlebury, N. Y., and was educated in the Academy in that town. His ministry began in 1835, and he received the fellowship of the Genesee Association, at its session at Pavilion, Aug. 19, 1835. His first settlement was at Perry, N. Y., afterwards at Rochester, N. Y., Castine, Me., Haverhill, Mass., Middletown, Conn. After this he was in secular business several years, but re-entered the ministry in 1875, and had settlements at London, Columbus, Ohio; Logansport, Ind.; Camp Hill, Ala. The infirmities of age have for several years compelled his retirement from active life. In the genial climate of Georgia he found kind friends who made his last days comfortable. Mr. Abell was a preacher and writer of great intellectual force.

AARON SMITH died at Lehigh, Iowa, Oct. 7, 1894, in the 82nd year of his age. Of him we have no information except that he was ordained in 1864, and has long been feeble with age. We do not learn that he was ever settled as pastor. He was probably a self-supporting missionary, at large.

CHARLES WOODHOUSE, M.D., born in Weathersfield, Conn., Nov. 11, 1812, died at his home in Rutland, Vt., Oct. 15, 1894. Dr. Woodhouse fitted for the ministry in the study of the late Rev. Dr. I. D. Williamson, while the latter was settled in Albany, N. Y. He was ordained at Lansingburgh, N. Y., Sept. 12, 1834, where he had his first settlement. Afterwards he was at Brattleboro, Vt.; Westmoreland, N. H.; Clarendon, Vt.; Fitchburg, Mass.; Louisville, Ky.; Johnsbury Centre, Vt.; Boonsboro, Iowa; Moline, Ill.; Muscatine, Iowa; Plainfield, Ill. He became a Doctor of Medicine in 1865, receiving his diploma at the Hahneman, Homœopathic Medical College in Chicago, in which institution he afterwards became the Professor of Medical Jurisprudence and Insanity. In his later years he devoted himself to the practice of Medicine in Rutland, Vt. He was also prominent in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in that State. He was scholarly and eloquent, and always kept up his interest in and efforts for the spread of the doctrines of Universalism.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 13.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people, and the need to ensure that the health care system is able to meet the needs of older people. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out the government's commitment to older people and the need to ensure that the health care system is able to meet the needs of older people.

The strategy for older people is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people are able to live independently and actively; (2) to ensure that older people are able to access the health care services that they need; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in their own homes and communities.
